" The world is seen different through everyone's eyes."

I've been writing longer than I can remember, it was always my way of getting out how I felt about something. The world is not always a happy and bright place, but at the same time it's not always dark and hateful either.

Things in my life are always changing and that's okay I know that not everyday is going to be good and I know that I am not promised tomorrow. I try to find good in everything even when some days that's a little harder to do. I wouldn't say I'm an open book nor am I easy to read, but I believe with my writing I have a lot to offer and through my writing a lot can be seen.

" I'm what you would call a work in progress."

: (Ending In Death! ! !

You said you were always there
You said you would never leave me
Now I know that was all a lie
You never cared at all
I'm sitting here with blood on the floor
My wrists are cut so deep
Your no were to be found
I'm dying and you don't know
I start to feel dizzy then I fall Hitting the ground ever so hard Lying there with blood around me Screaming someone save me!

You said you would never leave me
Time is just running out
The light slowly fades away
My heart beats slower
I guess you never cared to begun with

You said you were always there
You said you would never leave me
My eyes slowly close
As my breath fades to nothing
My heart comes to a stop
As everything goes black That's how it ends
All in death
All because you were never there

? Love?

Love is it real, or is it fake
Can it be found or just to late
Does it make you weak or strong
Can it last forever or not very long
Is it something you can see Or will you always be asking does he/she love me
Do you know love or just a show Should it hurt or not at all Will it keep you strong or let you fall

Love is it real or is it fake
Can it be found or just to late
I think maybe I might know That my baby's love isn't a show
In him my love was found
But he doesn't know so not a sound
Yes it has kept me strong and also let me fall Sometimes it hurts and not at all Just look high in the sky above Tell me do you know about love?

~two Differences~

Much is not the same
Too many things are different to be
There is the love that people all fear
And the hate that we all share
There are the ones who laugh
Then there are the ones who cry
There are the preps
Then you have the Goths
How can it all be in the same place
When all is two differences?
We have those with money and fame
In addition, those who live on the streets who get called lame Can any one really tell another the truth?
How can it all have the same meaning?
However, be so different in the end?
Can you open your eyes and see the same
Or is that too much for me to ask?

3 Bleeding Away The Pain3

Here I am tonight
Not afraid to fade away from the light
I am tired of always having to cry
Its not going to be OK just don't lie
You know as well as me
Now everyone can see
Bleeding away the pain
To sit there and let the blood flow with the rain
No one ever knows
Is it my fault not to let it show?
I asked to be saved
My path to hell has been paved
I cannot hear your call
I already let myself fall
I was okay
Until you had to take my little sissy away!
I am tired of my past
Those are memories I want to put last Bleeding away from all the pain
With a knife to cut so deep!

chelsi Ruffing

A Burning Treasure

Something that is so very sweet Someone special that you meet It's like a burnuing treasure
Nothing else can even measure
Don't let that little thing fade away Cause who knows what will happen the next day Trust me when I say it's true My burning treasure knows it to Even thoguh she's not here
And she knows I can't be right there I'll stand by her forever
If you don't like it then just remember Her and I will as we
And that's something that will be a shock to see Just give it time for that day
Then you won't know what to say!

A Craving

A craving that's in your heart
A small peace that has a jump start Falling from somewhere way up high Its not like floating is space more liked drifting out of place Something no one can see Place to hide someone like you and me
I wish the pain would fade away Maybe the light will shine on us one day

chelsi Ruffing

A Crying Child

A crying girl always sits right there
She never says a word to any one who is here
She stays to her self without a word Crying is what everyone heard A boy who sits there with nothing to say
As he watches the light of day
The people see the look on his face Wondering why he never speaks
The thing you all don't know
IS that this boy and girl
Are fed up with life
They are tired of all the pain and hurt
That's been brought to them to handle
So little and young their lives were done Way before they even begun

chelsi Ruffing

A Dream That Was Once So Crushed Within My Heart

A dream that was once so crushed within my heart
At one time taking every letter and ripping it apart Never will I understand why you left us all alone to be
I think back now and know there was so much I didn't see Life is a journey I have come to learn from the past
There are something's that just aren't ment to last

Sometimes it seems as if I am only here to fall
Then I realize even if I do in the end I still stand tall
I might lose my sight but never my passion
This is the cause of a hidden emotion
My soul is eternal and my love will never end
There are the things we can never pretend

Life to you ends in two ways into the dark or into the light
To me there is so much more if you only fight What's is worth to live of life never to love at all?
Than to live a life with knowing you had a person to keep you tall Go back in your head and look back at the many sweet things you had in a dream
Instead of going back in time to look back at things that made you scream

Just take a look at the things around you
There is always so much in life to do Just open your eyes to see the beautiful things that are there everyday
When you really take the time to see it you won't know what to say
It seems as if even when we get hurt we still seem to care Even when the other person don't and they aren't fair

chelsi Ruffing

A Dying Friend

I can hear her painful cries
All she ever heard was lies
As I race to save her
So that this Don't recur
This is all based on fait
When I get there I'm just to late
As I push open the door
I can see her lifeless body one the floor Blood around her like a stream
As Tears roll down I'm wishing this were a dream
I hold her in my arms
Wishing she never did self-harm
All her pain she left behind
All because you people were so blind
I hope she knew I always cared All I have left is the memories we shared.

A Kiss That Ment Nothing something that can mean so much can also mean so little a kiss that means nothing a kiss not worth talking about? its something from the past that should stay there remember when you kiss and it dont mean a thing its better just to let it go then hold on to something thats not there

chelsi Ruffing

A Realm Of Which Is Covered In Hate

A realm of which is covered in hate
Being saved its just to late Unable to breathe or speak Knees shaking and feeling naushes and weak Trying hard to keep my head up being strong In fear its too late to fix the wrong
Not having all the pieces dear
My voice hard to hear
Where did this come from, its not right
Please I can't give up I must fight
Its hard to hold back tear come on don't blink
This is hard I can't even think Feeling like someone is choking me Vision is blurry its hard to see

chelsi Ruffing

A Summer Romance

He was something I never thought could ever once again be, Something happened and he became everything to me,
Our love became so breath taking, and strong,
The days with him nothing could have gone wrong,
All the secrets we would share,
In his eyes you could tell he truly did care,
He was my everything and more,
Weekends were fun, couldn't wait for him to walk through the door,
A summer romance worth being able to see,
Wrapped up in something meant to truly be,
Then something went wrong and that's when I knew,
Leaving me lost and with a decision to choose,
Our love was no longer strong and it was time to walk away,
With a phone call the truth I had to say,
Heart breaking I tried to understand,
Turning my head I held on tight to my sister's hand, Friends still, I'm with someone new,
But he will always hold a part of my heart to,

chelsi Ruffing

All Because Your A Fool

I can't stop crying
I really feel as if I'm dieing the pain is so very strong it feels so very wrong my hearts breaking you cant stop takeing you tore my poor soul
all because your a fool

chelsi Ruffing

All The Broken Hearts

All the broken hearts
The ones people left in parts
The tears no one wanted to dry
From all the people who couldn't help but cry
People that were never able to stay strong
Everything for them felt so wrong

You seem to sit there with no emotion to see Yet deep down inside your hurting to be
There will be a time in this world that it's going to end
But even then you can't sit here and always pretend It's not always a matter of what's wrong or right
It's a matter of you putting up a fight
This is not a matter of who's winning the race
Or who you always walk the same steady pace

The tears no one wanted to dry
From all the people who couldn't help but cry
People that were never able to stay strong
Everything for them felt so wrong

It's ok to want to stand up and scream Life isn't always a pleasant dream
Sometimes you need a helping hand
But don't get scared if you don't understand Sometimes there are things we wish we could feel Is what we live each day real?
The thoughts that stay deep in our head
Make us feel almost dead

The ones people left in parts
The tears no one wanted to dry
From all the people who couldn't help but cry
People that were never able to stay strong
Everything for them felt so wrong

chelsi Ruffing

All The Things I Couldn'T Say

When you said you were leaving so many thoughts in my head,
The days were coming up fast you leaving I dread,
Knowing from the start, crying I couldn't do,
Had to hold back and be strong for you,
All the things I wanted but couldn't say,
I didn't want you to leave, why couldn't you stay?
Nothing feels the same without you anymore,
You would be proud, I didn't cry until behind my bedroom door, Without you here things go by so slow,
Your missed and loved more than you know,
I wish you the best in your new place,
Once again that smile is back on your face,
I still want you right here beside me,
Your an amazing sister, that's the truth you see,
All the things I couldn't say
Things were just to upsetting that day,
You moving was the worst pain,
I wanted to hide your ticket so you couldn't get on the plane.

chelsi Ruffing

Already Numb With A Black Heart

Already numb with a black heart
My heart is now cold
My fears are now hate
Why you did messed up my fait
Now I'm as cold as ice
I don't feel pain
Its all gone away
Everything is black Like the night I stand in They made me this way
And can't take it back Sorry to say
But this is who you made me
Now its not what you wanted it to be Hate to break it to you but I will not fall Down below you is not were I'll end up
I have the black heart and the empty soul
Not my life is gone right out the window
I feel nothing see what I mean
You can't hurt me you little flea Now run like you should Before I make a move
To take you down
This is to all who try to distory me

chelsi Ruffing

Always And Forever

You always said it could be never
For some reason it will always be forever
How can this be
That now one day it will be you and me
Our love is so very strong
Nothing feels wrong
It all feels like a sweet dream
I feel like I should scream
Time just freezes when I'm with you
I hope you feel that to Everyone always said wait your turn
So I did and I'm through

chelsi Ruffing

Am I Disstand?

People say I'm very hidden to all around me
That I say nothing and let no one see
At frist I thought it was all a lie
Now that I think about it I do and really try
I never thought it was that bad
There are times I don't want to anyone to know I'm sad Its just my world isn't always bright Sometimes just don't always go right
There are so many things I don't understand How somethings happened that were never palnned
To many times feeling out of place
Life always seems to be one big race Getting let down once again I fear
Lots of things I have screamed but no one ever seems to hear
A dream that never seems to end
A truth that everyone seems to bend
The fighting to be strong Running away from whats wrong Losing a very tight hold Sitting in the rain shivering cold
So am I disstand from all around me?
I guess at times I really can be

American Dream Girl

They tell me she's the all American dream girl Everything about her is so perfect and sweet
There could never be a thing wrong with her
They all stop and stare when she walks in the room
They only see her smile and beautiful eyes.
No one knows behind those eyes is so much pain
No one ever sees the tears this poor girl cries
She has it all but someone who cares
So I stand there in the shadows Holding out my hands for her to take
I let her cry on my shoulders
I whisper in her ear 'everything will be OK'
She looks deep into my eyes Holding onto my tight
I say 'I'll always be here'
Tears fall from her eyes.
As I whisper 'I love you little sis' then I disappear

chelsi Ruffing

As Cold As My Deep Breath

Things seem to be all in tangles
Everything is starting to mangle
My thoughts are never seem to end
Is my heart ever going to mend?
As cold as my deep breath
I wonder how it feels so much like death
Not able to walk a straight line
All my feelings enter twine
The pounding in my head Everything bit of faith seems to just go dead
I have this big whole in my center of my chest
There never anytime in a day or night to rest Walking with my head hung low
Each day seems to go so slow
I keep losing the path I am to follow Everything that was clear at one time seems so hollow Standing there so scared to move out of place Trying to take things at the steady est pace
A new start its just to late Love and emotion turn to meaning ful hate Left heart broken and ever so lost in what to say Trying hard to stay strong through everyday
A person can one withhold so much thats wrong
Until the person is longer able to stay strong
To inbrace something that you fear
There is going to be nothing not even a tear Everything goes ever so numb This doesn't always happen to all just some

chelsi Ruffing

As I Am

As I am to you
As I always was
I don't get whats so very wrong
Why do things feel so different Are we still going to be friends Or better yet sisters
I know we arn't the same
But why do I feel so laim Please tell me what is going on What happend to that love we shared

chelsi Ruffing

Ashly Your

ashly your a treasure I'll always keep you safe your such a sweet angel your a once in a life time proud to say you my sis
I love you and always will (this is to my lil sis shes such a gift!)

chelsi Ruffing

At One Time We Were Ok

at one time we were ok but now I'm drifting away crying all night long why what was so very wrong you broke my heart once more you caused me to slam the door now I know it was a waist of time loveing you should be a crime you stabled me with that knife you messed up my last live pooring out my heart to you but now I can't say who I thought you and I were forever but no instead you and I were never your really such a kiss up my tears fill up a coffie cup see what you did to me why couldn't you just let it be that was a little thing to say now you will be the one to pay

chelsi Ruffing

Basing It On Everyday Life!

Basing things on everyday life
Why can't people just open their eyes?
This is reality not a dream
You can't just wake up and everything fall into place
Its hard work and can really hurt
Can you take that big step?
Or let it go and fall apart
People tell me to keep going
But when they aren't the ones trying Stop telling oh it's going to get better That's about a lie in a half
You think you can build me up To just let me go and fall
No this time I won't fall for the same thing
This is my time and I scream it in the rain
Try to break me down try to make me cry
This time Ill be the one on top while you're on the ground
You can be the one scared with shame
I wont have to worry about a damn thing!

Best Friends

best freinds are forever boyfriends are what ever I'll keep her here
I'll send him over there my best friend is you him and I are through.

(meagn this is for you sry i let a boy come between our freind ship)

chelsi Ruffing

Blades Were My Best Friend At One Time

Blades were my best friends at one time
One cutt or two Now its likes why
I won't do that any more
Its not worth the time
Just to see it bleed
For what it didn't make it better Just worse and worse
Now I'm free from that Not to think about it any more They arn't my best friend
They are what I dispise
So now you know
Thats not the answer to whats wrong But change the problem instead or makeing it worse

chelsi Ruffing

Blood Dripping From My blood dripping from my broken heart tears coming from my sad eyes pain from my toren soul crazy as deaths hold I'm gliding into the darkness forever shall i stay as the candle light goes out take my last breath away then dead i shall lay upon my shallow grave to never be seen again all because of you my love

chelsi Ruffing

Blood Flows Down

blood flows down the stream scary as it all seems I'm dieing inside closeing down my heart tears roll down my face just to hit the ground please please don't cry
I wish i could say I'll be fine but then I would just lie
I love you but now I've go to get away out of here to a better place were I'll be safe and free

chelsi Ruffing

Blood Flows Like A Steady Stream

causing you to scream tears roll down your rosey cheeks love is something that you she seeks pain that stabs you like knives you feel as if your loseing your last lives
crying all night long you feel so very wrong
I'm the one will make you pay
I will set you on the grave to lay laying down your broken heart all because of that one dart

Born An Out Cast

Never will I fit in That's the way its always been I am not the same
To them I am lame

born an out cast
so they always put me last

I cry and cry
No one will even try I'm sorry I can't be she I will always be just me

Born an out cast
A sweet dream from the past they condemn me for how I feel when I was always the one who was real Please save me tonight

Don't let me fall out of the light

Born an out cast
so they always put me last

I don't want to change me
Why can't you just see Look in to my sad and darkened eyes
Is how I feel any thing you recognize?

Born an out cast
My feeling were always put last

There was never any thing fair Michelle and I use to be a pair
But once again they took that away
Her and I had so much to say!

Broken Up

Once we were as one
Now we are but two
We are broken up
Not to be us any more
I wish this never was But I can't change what was not mine
So for now this will just stay I love you boy but we can never be I hate it being just you and me
My head is going to bust
There is no more trust
This is not fair
I am pulling out my hair
Crying all night
Will anything be alright
My days are way to long My love for him feels so very wrong

chelsi Ruffing

Broken, Lost, Confused

I'm lost once again in this hall
Broken to pieces and now to fall Confusion to why it brings tears Showing all my fears
I'm lost and broken confused
I guess the wrong path I choosed Wished I would have known this before I would have walked a different path I'm sure I can't turn back time to make it right Staying up crying in the middle of the night
I wish people had better hearts Then mine wouldn't be in two parts

chelsi Ruffing

Burning The Memories

Breaking down each and every wall
This time around I won't let my-self fall
I'm getting away to clear my head
No more with this feeling that inside I'm dead Everything that happend was wrong
But this time I'm going to stand strong

Burning down the memories of you Burning down the memories of everything I went through Burning down the memories of late nights crying Burning down the memories of all the lieing

I know I'll never forget my past
I learnd that somethings just don't last I'm going to say good-bye and walk away
There's nothing left here for me stay
I had to wipe away all the tears
To stand up and face all my fears
I can't depend on them to make everything right
This time around it's my fight
I have to depend on me
It took so long for me to see

Burning the memories of the pain Burning the memories of running in the rain Burning the memories of all that happend to me Burning the memories of the heart break to be

I have to fix my broken heart
I was the one who let it get rpped apart
I'm not going to keep with the same dream Keeping my mouth shut so I can't scream Place my feet firm on the floor
I'm going to lock the door
There's nothing left to hide Letting all of you know the feeling inside
I do not need anyone to take my hand
Now after so long I understand
This is the truth for all of you to know

This time around it's not a show
There are things we can never I can say I have been through hell

Burning the memories of it all Burning the memories of your last call Burning the memories of you kissing she Burning the memories of you saying you love me Burning the memories of ever saying hi Here are my last words 'Good-Bye'

chelsi Ruffing

Can You Love Me As I Do You

Can you love me as I do you
Can you say that I'm your girl
Whats that feeling that you hide Is it over me or should I let that one be I need your help with this one my love
Please say you love me as well
If not then tell me now
So I don't hurt as bad in the end
Its hard to think now Can't you just give me the answer
God please let this al be ok
I want him to feel the way I do
But if not let there be another
Just for me please Give me this one little wish

chelsi Ruffing

Dare To Open My Book.

Let me tell you a little story about a girl perfect to be,
A girl with nothing wrong that anyone could see,
This story so sad it's heart breaking to read,
Let take it step by step I'll be in the lead,
Her world seems nothing but a dream,
From her eyes its a nightmare frightful enough to scream,
So tell me dare to open my book so dark and cold, I'll keep telling the story its something that must be told,
Everything started by one little tiny fight,
The days after that nothing seemed right,
From a mom and dad breaking apart,
To four little kids with only their mom having to restart Soon their dad moved far away,
Through out the years a dad would never stay,
Moving around never staying in one place,
Life for them moved so fast, to keep up they had to race,
Okay lets stop for a little bit and take a break,
There's so much hidden because it would keep you awake, Dare to open my book and read a story of five,
Who has been through hell and still came out alive,
This family of five have seen it all and more,
Four little kids hearing mommy was drug out a door,
With bats and pans waiting up late at night,
No one was going to hurt them, everything was going to be alright,
Soon they has a new family, one not so bad,
Two step brothers and for once a dad,
Life wasn't so bad for once, but nothing ever lasted for long,
They perfect family didn't last, something just went wrong,
Their mom and step dad started to fight and yell,
The four of us knew what was next we could just tell, Back to packing we were up and moving once again somewhere new,
At frist we didn't know were or with who,
Soon back in the state where we were born in a new place, Unpacking, painting, having new friends with a smile on our face, Everything was normal, everything was working fine, it seemed like eveything was falling into line,
When we started to think we had it all,
That's when everything happened and something let us fall,
Going back to Florida, none of us four wanted to do,

Staying long wouldn't happen we all knew,
Sooner or later mom was packing and we came back,
Going to court, the school didn't like us so we had to pack,
Our dad started to play a role in our life,
Yes he cared, but sometimes it was because he wanted mom as his wife,
Back and forth is a game we played quit well,
Our world spun faster than most if you can't tell,
If only us five someone would have had a hand to lend,
The stories not over but for now will leave this as the end.

Darkness

darkness flows all around it will cover you now you can't hide from it but embrace it you shall do allowing it to cover you then you shall be free from this place you will leave to a place were is so peaceful

chelsi Ruffing

Dear Angel

Taking out a pen an paper to write how I feel,
Writing to someone even if not real,
Just need someone to listen to what I have to say,
Even if only for once a day,
Dear Angel please just listen to me,
No one else can see what you see,
Will anyone ever care,
Nothing right now seems fair,
I feel like I don't belong,
I shouldn't feel this way its wrong,
The only one who can help is you,
Please in my life I need something new,
My family seems to be falling apart,
But how many times can you really restart,
A life given seems to be getting taken away,
For a reason unknow to say,
Please Angel hear my plea,
I just need someone to help me.

Death Is Comeing For Me

Death is come for me Can't you just see
I'm going to die
Please don' cry
Just give it time
And you'll be just fine
Its beond your grasp
You can't always keep me safe When death comes
It takes all in its path
Theres nothing any one can do I'll always love you Here is my last words
Good bye

chelsi Ruffing

Death Is Near

Death is near me
I can feel it Coming up so slow
I'll be the next to go
Please don't cry
Its my time to die
I love you
Please take care

chelsi Ruffing

Did I Ever Matter?

I try to climb the ladder
I wonder did I ever matter
I have so many fears Cried way to many tears
My life was like hell
The things I saw I can't even tell I have a very cold heart only because it's been ripped apart
I have caused self harm
I have more cuts on my arm can't help but to be so shy I hide that I cry or at least I try my dreams are no more
I never can open that door
I keep my fears locked away with a key so I won't say people play with me like I am a doll so they can watch me fall I lost so much so fast and I know it will never be the last I have a hard time saying I love you cause I never know if they will say it to I can't just give up though so instead I put on a show

chelsi Ruffing

Dieing Heart

Here in this world so black]
The beautiful life is such a lack Hearts are always broken to see everyone at one time can see There are those times were we just cry
So many people like to lie
I can't help but to say That death becomes scarier each day
The fear of losing it all
The tears that always seem to fall
A diening heart is never fair
That's not something that people like ot share
Why do people blame this all on me?
When I am not the one who was blind to see

chelsi Ruffing

Dieing On The Inside

Dieing on the inside
My life has always been un and down ride Crazy everyday stop! is what i want to say how is this fair to any kid like me?
I wish all of you would open your eyes and see this is not a life we want to lead we cut our selfs to watch it beeld its not just about you its about we at one time it was michelle and me But all of you took her away her and i never had a say that was never fair i want to pull out my hair to yell and scream all my tears make a stream when she self harms all up and down her arms i hope then you get what i mean everything feels as a sorry shaim Yeah i do have a heart ingraved on my arm i do have a sweet charm but you never see that side all you ever did was lied cant take back all our pain her and I will run away on that train dont bring us close to death just lets us be freinds and we will be just fine in the end.

Dying Girl

Her eyes are swollen from crying Blood is dripping from her wrists she's done trying The darkness is here in her life no more light
Her whole body aches and nothing feels right Slow steady tears fall from her pale face and the ground Sitting there in the dark not to be found Her heart is breaking and falling apart
Her life isn't the same and she has no idea where to start
She tried to hold on but they just let her fall
At one time in life she had it all She's trying to remember her past But being happy wasn't something to last People think she's so happy but it's all a show
If only she could let you all know
This is a never-ending pain Standing there in the rain Getting dizzy and hit the floor
You think you know her so well
But there are things she can never tell
She wanted so badly for people to see That she just wanted to be let be Her world goes dark and black
Now it's to the point of no going back She's going to end it all and die
This isn't being funny it's not a lie She's tired of being hurt and lied to True friends to her are very few I wish all you people could see That this girl dying on the inside is me!

Enternal Love And Hate

This is something we don't speak of This is the reason we all shove
We all believe in love and hate
But at times It's just to late
You don't want to love
But you can't just hate Eternal love and hate is our fait There's nothing to do about it
We all have that in pur spirit
You know as well as me
You just have to open your eyes and see

chelsi Ruffing

Escapeing From This Misery

Escapeing from this misery
From all this pain
From the tears inside me
I can't stay here
I must go some were Loseing what light I have Going to the darkness to stay
Escapeing from this misery
from everything in sight from the heart break I once felt I will never be alright
I just need to get away
Love ripped me apart
Hate pull me out Everything I need to run from Is right in front of me Run far from here
Were will I end up?

chelsi Ruffing

Even When I Want To Quit

Even when my feet are hurting I still keep on running
The things I have made it through are stunning Even when I am losing my breath
I still won't stop for death
What I'm doing might not be right
But I still plan to put up a hell of a fight
I'm not little miss innocent in fact I'm pretty bad
My temper is not something good when I'm mad
I refuse to be something other than me Your option is not something I choose to see You think you're always right that's something I can't stand Go away in time I will do this on my own and you will understand Look this time I will turn and walk away
There isn't ever enough time in a day
I can't say you didn't try
But right now I have got to go so good-bye
I walk off every path laid out for me Only to make my own path to be
This is it no one can tell me I'm wrong
Because making it this far I am so very strong
As the moonlight shines down on my face
This is it I am almost to the end of this race Things are never going to be the same
My life became one big game
My heart has become ice cold
This is part of a sad story told It's ok that no one seems to care Because hey this is life and its not fair
I use to have just sweet dreams
Now they make me want to scream
All this pounding in my head
Make me wish I were dead
This is the part of me which empty Maybe it's because I won't let go of my memory

chelsi Ruffing

Everything Is New

Everything is new
Not so much the same
Its not so bad any more Or should it be
I'm not use to this feeling Someone plesae help
Everything is new to me
Not so boreing
Not as much drama Everything is just new now

chelsi Ruffing

Fadeing Away

as the light goes out to fade away
This is not a place for me to stay Im no long safe here
Nor am i over there

I'm fadeing away
Fadeing out of sight

I cant stop crying
i got to stop relying its to hard to keep holding on yeah i know i am afraid of ron i cant help that one everything feels like a tone

Im fadeing away from all of this fadeing to somewere new can you be the one to save me or will you be the one who lets me fall?

chelsi Ruffing

Fallen To Pieces Broken Apart

Beaten and battered, left without a heart
Put down and let fall
Lost trust then put up a wall

I don't believe anyone will see The truth is my life isn't what it should be
There has been so many lies
There is only two people who hear my cries
When I fell no one was there to grave my hand
Yet no one seems to understand

Beaten and battered, left without a heart
Put down and let fall
Lost trust then put up a wall

I don't see whats keeping me strong
When all else around me is all wrong
It's hard not to be bitter or hate I'm gald they try but please it's just to late Sooner or later my pain will be numb
This whole thing couldn't be more dumb

Beaten and battered, left without a heart
Put down and let fall
Lost trust then put up a wall

It's hard to believe anyone can care
For the fact this isn't fair
Now it's not about what is right Because everyone around lost that sight
The same thing each and everyday
I guess the truth we will never say

Fallen to pieces, broken apart
Beaten and battered, left without a heart

You put your hand on the door
But never take a step forward to more
The same old thing with the same old lie With the same look of oh my It's almost like you like this dreadful trend But somewhere down the line it must end

chelsi Ruffing

For None Of This Was Ever A Dream

Laying there in bed with the covers pulled up so high Hearing someone walk closer who can it be standing by As quiet as can be if only the room wasn't so dark to see
I thought that the only person in the room was me Seeing a shadow just standing there
As it takes small steps near Holding one hand over my mouth trying not to scream Hoping with all my heart that this is all just a dream
As the shadow reaches down a hand
I'm so confused I don't understand Scared and unsure I take it and ask why Without a sound we walk to the window and look at the sky
With words almost like a whisper he says 'come and be with me' I'm unsure on what to do and say 'but how can this ever be? '
Hand in Hand we walk slow to the door
I can feel the coldness from the wooden floor
Before we take a step further he leans down and kisses my lips
I get the chills down to my finger tips
He whispers 'baby I love you'
As I smile and say 'I love you to'
They find the note that says Good-Bye
I went and joined my love in the sky
They find my body with the cover pulled high With heavy hearts they start to cry
If only they could scream
For none of this was ever a dream

chelsi Ruffing

Forgetting Not Holding On

Sometimes its just better, just to forget
Not always remembering is not something to regret Holding on is not always good Holding on to something bad is not something you should I remember when you told me that you loved me But then i think back and you also said that to she I can't hold on to this feeling you know this isn't right
This feeling I am going to fight
This is the last time for me to have a broken heart
In my life you won't be apart
Yeah at one time we were great But being in etchers life was not our fiat
There are things we can't change and that's the past Maybe it was better this didn't last
There are times i think about you About the pain you put me through This is something I won't do again
Now it has to come to an end
There been enough pain for both of us
What we has wasn't love it was luss
There is one last thing I have to say Here are my last words to you 'Goodbye'

chelsi Ruffing

Forgotten

Back in the dark is where i will go not a one of you even know that was not even fair at all you're the ones who let me fall

I was forgotten once more That's something i am sure

I can't stand that you never knew you should have known it to you were the one to say that I would be the one to pay

I was forgotten like always
I will get you back one of these days

There's nothing good about how i feel you need to open your eyes and see what's real do you even have a heart?
or was that ripped apart?

chelsi Ruffing

Friends Are Not Worth Loseing

friends are not worth loseing boyfriends really arn't worth choseing a friend is always there boyfriends don't even care when you cry a friend crys to boyfriends just say boo hoo friends are worth the time boyfriends could care less freinds will always be forever boyfriends will always be what ever freinds are to treasure boyfreinds will always be never

Frozen In Bed Frozen In Fear

Sitting awake late in my bed at night
Shivering something just doesn't feel right
The door slowly creaks open sending shivers through me
The room is too dark to really see Frozen in my bed Frozen in fear
As a person takes a step closer causing a tear Heart starts to beat faster fighting to breathe fine
They start walking in a funny line Reaching my bed standing still where I lay Unsure of what to say
The suspense has me on edge about to cry
In a flash their hands around my neck with a sigh
They start choking me, putting me in so much agony and pain Tears flood from my eyes so much like rain
I struggle beneath the hands to get free Wishing I could only scream for someone to save me Then they let go immediately at last Taking in deep breaths fast Biting my tongue trying not to scream
Please I wish this were a dream Holding my hands to my throat unsure Hoping it's over and there is no more
They walk back now I see their face so clear Face so mad and twisted with a sneer Slowly he repeats 'I'm sorry I love you'
I sit there in shock thinking everything through Trying hard not to cry trying to be strong It's hard when all of this now feels wrong
Knowing I can't do this anymore
I stand with shaking knees and walk to the door Turning back with only one thing to say
I can't keep doing this day after day
So for the last time good bye Then walking out the door trying not to cry

chelsi Ruffing

Get It Now

Get it now
Don't you see
I use to think That mom and dad were ment to last But now I know mom and dad fight
And its better this way
Get it now
Don't you see
Mom I love you
Dad I won't forget you
But you two were never ment to be
I wish there was another way
Get it now
Don't you see
That you two are our world
But both not in our lives
That way it use to be
It hurt us so to know
Get it now
Don't you see
Dad you mom wil never be Mom you can make it on your own just try
Get it now
Don't you see

chelsi Ruffing

Get Over It

you really make me sick your driveing me crazy god stop being so lazy you won't break my heart don't even start you were such a waist of time wow you realy are slime can't belive I fell for you now when someone says your name I say who I really wonder why
I think when i dated you I was high

chelsi Ruffing

Give Me The Help I Need

Someone just break the chain,
Wash away the nightmares with the rain,
Someone please just take my hand,
Just explain to me for I don't understand,
Everything is falling out of place,
My legs won't move, I think I'm losing the race, Someone please just pick me back up for good,
Give me the strength and push me to the things I should,

I'm scared and don't know what to do anymore,
I hide hoping the noise won't make it past the door,
Mom and dad won't stop screaming,
I keep on wishing I'm only dreaming,
But my eyes are open and full of fear,
So lost I can't even shed a tear,
Someone tell me it will be alright,
That soon this will end no more to fight.

chelsi Ruffing

Going On That Ride

our night of fun is meant to last We seem to forget about the past Running around laughing with so worry at all
We held each other close to never fall
Going on that ride
For that one moment we didn't have you hide
We held hands so very tight Us being sisters was ever so right
I miss you more and more
We will be friends forever That I'm sure You Gave me a necklace of a broken heart
I wish we weren't so far apart
I'll never forget this night
Two sisters having fun is such a sight
On that ride was such a blast A memories meant to last

chelsi Ruffing

Gone

There in my darkest dreams Everything is ok or at least it seems I've choked back so many tears losing everthing is one big fear so many scary sighs look into my stone cold eyes you keep reassuring me just to let it all be I get so tired I just want to rest I think I faild the test happyness is a never Death is so very clever what a heartache to be alone
Even when your in your home
I want my heart to be heald of corse you say ok you've dealed
I refuse to see it
I have a very dead and black spirit
This is not what you expected but this is whats occurring This feeling is very hurtful breaking into two is very painful Strangers stabbing me with knives Death is messing up so many lives
I'm just going to guit trying My heart feels like its dieing love was once somthing to treasure now it can't even measure I won't pretend to be ok with you how didn't you know it to?
I don't have a hesitation to fail
I wish I could jump the rail I'm a beautiful mess feeing of love is less and less
A heart ingraved on my arm
I caused my self alot of harm My emotions are all fase fears cryed way to many tears tragedy to speek of this

At one time my attention was all his I suppose I could strengthen what's mine
And say I'll be just fine Abandonment is how I feel only one person relates for real she is very passionate at heart she will be the one to play the part i'm honored to hear her perspective she's the reason i live now you get what i mean ill stand on the brige and lean to fall to what's called the end no more around the never ending bend heres my last goodbye
please dont cry
one day we will meet pain is somthing i will defeat ill be watching over you as i know you would be to.

chelsi Ruffing

Goodbye

I don't know anymore if what I'm doing is right
The darkness over comes every bit of light
I stand here choking back ever tears
Trying hard to forget about my many fears
The people around me start to fade away Leaving me there like a stray
Nothing more I would rather understand Why did they all let go of my hand?
My heart feels so broken
I guess I have to leave the pain unspoken
To many times before I believed the lie
Now I stand here trying harder than ever not to cry
This just doesn't seem fair
I thought you out of all people would always care
I guess maybe I was so very wrong
Maybe you were never my reason for being strong
I guess somethings are never ment to last always and forever
The memories I will always remeber
I was never going to give up but try Not its not worth it anymore so goodbye.

Growing Up So Fast

Growing up so very fast all the sweet memories will last something i will never forget all the people i have met so much older now i cant say any thing but wow not a worry once before that is one thing i am sure i wish i could go back fun was not such a lack everyone loved one another i was closer to my mother my childhood is a memory that will last we look like a movie cast every thing was good to be i wish all people could see looking back makes me cry people think i lie if you could just see what i did i miss being a little kid

chelsi Ruffing

Ha Whats So Crazy?

Something that made me open my eyes
Yeah people are going to hear a bunch of lies
I just don't need the drama any more
I'm sitting in my dark room on the floor
As standing in a room full of people but feeling alone
I'm tired and don't want to talk so turning off my phone Here are things that people only guess about me
There more to me than any one can see
I am in to punk music and love to be crazy
I act like I'm three and I can't ever be lazy
I am in love with this really great boy
He don't show me off like some kind of toy
I have so much to tell Ha my life has been hell
I try to make the best of it I always keep an up and up spirit

chelsi Ruffing

Hardest Thing To Say 'Good-Bye'

Walking down this road again Never knowing when it will end Just passing people by Never stopping to say hi Getting away from the pain
When it starts to rain
I just keep going I'm tired having to hide
My life's has always been an up and down ride Someday people will see
Of what they did to you and me Until that day comes
I will keep the memories of fun
I stand there turning just to look back
I can't see a thing it's all black
I know what I'm doing is right
I won't give up on this fight
Happy to almost be free
The light I can almost see
As i reach my hand to tough it
I can feel it lift up my spirit
I feel like I'm flying
I look down below I see all them crying You walk to my room to find papers all lined
As you push past the door
To see my lifeless body on the floor Tears roll down your face Living life was never a race You hold my cold hand besides you I land
As I put my hand upon you Letting you know this is something I had to do
As a tear falls from my face hits the ground A tiny note in my hand is what you found opening it for all to read Hoping they will feel bad for their greed
As long as we always cared Don't forget the new things we shared Now my room is empty

All that's left is that memory
I'll always be right here
Even though it doesn't seem fair
A memory is what I will give Because in your heart I will always live
This isn't a goodbye forever
One day we will be together Don't give up on what you believe in
In the end you will be forgiven
Look up at the stars at night
Hold on to our memories tight I'll always be watching over you
As like so many others do to A week passes by Everyday I can see you cry
In your hand I put a gift
I can feel my self start to drift
As you look up to see me standing there
You know I'll always care
A tear falls from my face to land Right there in the Palm of your hand
I look right in your eyes and say I love you but I have to go so for now 'goodbye'

chelsi Ruffing

He (Was) My World And So Much More

It's hard to grasp that he hurt me
I am so hurt all my friends can see My heart was once his
The worse thing about this is
He was my world and so much more
I thought he loved me but now I'm not so sure
No one took him from me
But he just couldn't see
I don't think I can hate you
But I wont say I love you to I really must have been that bad Love is what we had
But you took that away
This time you're running out of things to say People jugged me for that way I might be You didn't even know the real me
I thought he would never hurt me or make me cry
But I guess that was all one big lie

chelsi Ruffing

Hear My Calls Out To You

Hear my calls out to you
If only you knew the things that I know Hear me scream from this living nightmare Put your hand on my heart and feel my heart tare
As I lay there with the chills and soft sobs of my fears Take you hands and run them over my face and feel my many tears
Do you see the truth that lies so hidden under it all Maybe now because so many times I was let to fall
Hear my calls out to you
But will you ever answer be back if so how will I ever know
This time don't try and make me see
This time It's going to be him and me!
Where has everything gone why did it go wrong Am I losing and will I still stay strong Set the hole thing on fire and just let it burn
I guess that everyone in the world at one point gets a turn
The story just keeps on going where does it end Does it ever stop for a person to mend?
Hear my calls out to you
If only they could see and truly know.....

chelsi Ruffing

Heart Breaking

crying and all the lying its too much to handle its never going to be fair for her and i how can it be that everyone only hates me? i miss being there for her its all a big mess because she has to just lie michelle you know I'm always here even when it seems like i am never there at all

chelsi Ruffing

Heavens Step

Walking down this pretty path
With flowers all around Sweet smells in the air Walking through this garden
Nothing-scary nothing to hurt Peaceful place with so much light
As each person spreads they're beautiful white wings Standing there crying with happiness
There is no more pain or hurt
Everything is warm and peaceful
No more walking on the cold ground
But in the air and so very free
Sitting in the little clouds
With the wings of an angel
All the laughter and joy
As each person with a smile on his or her face
If only all could feel this way Wondering can this be a dream
Or have I reached the heaven?
Holding on to her hand
Now we will never have to let go
We never have to say goodbye
We are now at peace with life
Now in god's hands forever shall we stay?
Now I am at the end of this flowery path
It's right there at the gates
As they open for me to enter
I turn back to look down below
To the world I once lived in Then we take our step to never ending life

chelsi Ruffing

Her Growing Up

Her growing up so fast Watching as the days go by Seeing her lovely face Smiles like an angel
Shes such a gift to life
Not a worrie in sight Loveing her with so much Joy she brings to everything Cute and careing is what she is Little like a doll
With so much there and so much love to share

(this is about my lil cuz shes only 3)

chelsi Ruffing

Her Heart Is Breaking

everyone keeps taking all the lies she sits in the dark and cries her light was burned out she had to choose a different route one more time around that bend will it ever come to an end or will she fall once more this is all behind that scary door she keeps it locked to keep it hidden this feeling will always be forbidden i know this girl because she's me

chelsi Ruffing

Her Perfect Dream

They cuddle close wrapped up in a cover Everything perfect knowing they love each other Tilting her head back for a sweet kiss
He truly is her every wish Pulling her tight to him for a passionate kiss to stop her heart
This is it here comes the start
As he slides his hand through her hair Touching her skin so fair
She fits so perfect in his arms he has her so wrapped with his charms Gently he lifts her up in the air
They are the cutest pair
To the room and to the bed so soft beneath she Being so nervous hoping he can't see
As their clothes come off and fall to the floor Feeling his body against hers she can't breathe for sure Slowly placing kisses down her body making her heart race Sending her in shivers kissing in a gentle pace Feeling the warmth of his breath between her legs and tongue inside
The little noises she tries to hide Smiling he sits up and lays on top her breathing in her ear Everything seems so clear Feeling him between her gives her butterflies
So her hips start to rise
As he starts to enter her saying I love you Smiling and breathing hard she replies I love you to It's so hard to speak
As if she's almost weak
The pleasure of his thrusts drives her higher Setting them both on fire Clenching one another tight
Nothing in this world could feel more right Slight moans escape her from deep inside
Being quiet is hard even though they tried
She can feel him reaching his peak
As he thrusts one more time, their breaths they seek Their hearts beating so very fast Both wanting the moment to forever last Butterflies in her stomach making her want to scream

Its all so perfect, her perfect dream.

Here We Are

here we are no one else it's over no more changes you can't go back now you have to live with that you did you can't stop you can't rewind there's no going back you can say sorry but it won't help you can cry but it doesn't take the pain away you can run but you will never hide from it thats it its over

chelsi Ruffing

Hes My World And So Much More

Its hard to grasp that he's with me
I am so happy all of my friends can see My heart will always be his
The great thing about him is
He's my world and so much more
He loves me and for once I am sure No one can take him from me spencer I will always love you I hope you will love me to I must not be so bad heart broken is what I had but you took that all away
I think I am running out of things to say everyone always judged me for the way I might be But he loved me for me
He will never hurt me or make me cry
I swear I wouldn't lie

(this is to my boyfriend spencer)

chelsi Ruffing

Hope I Can See

You hold your self up so strong
You make it seem as nothing is wrong
Even though you have this broken heart
When everything around you seems to fall apart
Your trying so hard, you keep with this fight
How are you so sure its all going to be alright?
Your an angel in the sky Flying up ever so high
You make things seem so real
Is this something everyone can feel?
Everything to you is now free
I hope one I can see

chelsi Ruffing

How Dare You

how dare you lie you made her cry see what you made her do i am thinking about doing it to stop acting like such a bitch ok ill be nice and call you a witch i love you little sis like she were my little sis thats more than i can say for you

chelsi Ruffing

I Believe In The Hands That Hold Me

A life of a girl no one thinks is going to make it through She fights with everything she has, and does what she has to,
Growing up she'll be leaving for college soon, and on her own,
Proving to everyone who doubts her she can do it all alone,
Never backing down, she puts up a pretty good fight,
With a smile on her face, She knows in this argument she's right, Closing her eyes she prays, "I believe in the hands that hold me, "
Soon one day all those people are going to see,
She's going to make it big one day,
Coming back and leaving everyone speechless' with nothing to say, Bowing her head she prays, "I believe in the hands that hold me."
For in her eyes there's a fire burning bright to be,
People are trying to push her so far down,
But she keeps on smiling, never showing a frown,
Times get hard, but she's become so strong,
Hard headed she's come so far along,
Picking her self back up when she fell,
Standing there with her story to tell,
Looking in the crowd with her moms smiling face, Tears in her eyes because she made her mom proud by winning this race,
She believed in those hands that held her so tight,
With the strength she had she won this fight,
Yes she was so very scared to fail and mess up her dream,
But fear can only last so long until anymore you don't want to scream,
No getting this far wasn't always fair,
Sometimes she wanted to give up because no one seemed to care,
Her mom showed her the way, by taking her hands,
Now this girl is grown up and now understands,
Friends come and go through out life and not all stay,
But there is always another day,
She remembers what she had and lost,
What certain actions cost,
Life's lessons taught her so much and more,
No more second guessing she's for sure,
Throwing up her hands for everyone to see,
Praying loud, "I believe in the hands that hold me.

chelsi Ruffing

I Can't I Hide It Any More

There I can't hide this any more
I am going to open this dark and scary door
Wishing this would all just end
But I know that's not how I am going to mend Here are my dreams that keep replaying
Nothing is going to save me from drowning
No one can save me
Its not something any one can see
I cut myself to see it bleed
I write what you can't read
I don't know what to do
I am so ever very confused
Please I have to say good bye Or else I might as well die!

chelsi Ruffing

I Cant Love Him Any More

I cant love him any more i cant help but not be sure there too much they're for me
how can this be to many time i cried so many times he lied but why cant i just hate doesnt he know hes hust to late?
wait what am i saying i hope he is paying my heart was run over loving any one is a never i blame it all on me i messed it up for we

chelsi Ruffing

I Can'T Make It With Out You

I can't make it without you Nor do I ever want to I'm going to pray
For you to just stay
I need you sis
I'm going to make my last wish Please dont ever leave me Why can't you see

chelsi Ruffing

I Did It

I did in once it felt sure
I did it twice it felt great
I did once more
it felt sure
I didn't do it any more

chelsi Ruffing

I Don'T Want This Any More

Every tear that falls I have you to thank Every pain I felt is because of you Every time I see you I fall for your lies Your hurting me more than you can ever know
And yet I can never hate you or even try Because for some reason I love your lie
It's just not fair how you have me wrapped around you Stop holding me and just let me go
I don't want this pain any more I'm tired of the tears you bring and the heart-felt pain you bring Stop telling me you love me
I know the truth and yet I won't let go
You showed me the truth
Yet I'm still not hating you!
But the truth is I love your perfect lie

chelsi Ruffing

I Don'T Want To Cry Any More

I don't want to cry any more
I don't want to hurt so bad
I don't want to love you
I don't want to care
And its always there
I don't want you here
I don't want my my tears
I don't want this to be real
I don't ever want to feel this again
And yet it won't go away

chelsi Ruffing

I Feel Like I Being

I feel like I'm being torched my a lighter
I don't want to have to be the fighter
I want that little bit of hope
I just need time to cope
He once was my lover
Now all I can do is run for cover Saving myself this time
I don't want to pay for the crime
They all depend on me
I just want you to see
You really like to smother
I just want another
Its like my antie drug
No I don't want a hug
All the bad lieing
I need to stop crying
Run away from home
I just want to rome
Be free from all of you Can't you see it to?

chelsi Ruffing

I Feel So

I feel so alone
I feel so out of place something is wrong and won't go away please save me from this thought save me from this save me from me!

chelsi Ruffing

I Find My Self Alone

I find my self alone
cold and in the dark I find my self in tears all because of this pain
I find my self thinking
I can do better than this I find my self loseing the battle to get to you I find my self in a dream this is all not real

chelsi Ruffing

I Got To Get Away

Nothing I'm doing is right
I guess I'm just losing sight
Everything went so wrong
I can't take it I can still stay strong
I want to thank you for the pain
Never will I take back the memories in the rain Sisters forever I thought we would always be Maybe the truth was just something I didn't want to see You hurt me most out of all
You were the one I never thought would let me fall
My hearts slowly going cold
It's funny how things start to unfold
You know so many things are running through my head
My life feels ever so very dead Without you it's hard to breathe
The feeling is worse than death
People tell me best friend last forever
Now I think that's bullshit! forever is more like NEVER!
I don't want to hear anymore fucking lies
I can't take all these never ending cries!
My love is turned to hate!
You can't take it back IT'S TOO LATE!
I'm done I'm through
I can't go through this over and over again with you There's no place for me here
I have got to go somewhere
No more fearful dreams
I hate this I just want to scream!

chelsi Ruffing

I Guess This It, This Is The End

As the rain falls all around me
I just stand there it's very hard to see
I can't but to wonder about this never ending day
I was standing right in front of him with nothing to say Just standing there unable to move, not even my hand
It got dark so fast yet I still don't understand
The wind blows against my face but yet I can't feel it from being numb Can't remember where I once came from No tears seem to fall because of all the hate
I hear someone say come on it's getting late Still standing there I just shake my head Everything inside me feel almost dead
As the rain drips on my finger tips
Lost in my thoughts I can taste the water on my lips
I clench my fistst ever so tight
There's no more bright light
My heart becomes colder than ice
As if someone cut out a huge slice Standing there with the world spinning around me Falling to the ground dizzy as can be
I just lay there not caring to get out of the way Laying there until the break of day
As they walk over me and see that I lay there dead Lost forever in the dreams in my head
Everyone scream and yelled and some even cried Because sometime that night I gave up and died Flowers to my grave they will send I guess this is it, this is the end

chelsi Ruffing

I Have A Friend

I have a freind
she is so sweet
I tell her alot she's like my treasure that i keep safe

(michelle this is to you i love you gurl)

chelsi Ruffing

I Know

I know that you love me
I know that you care and for that I thank you but you really weren't there

(to my ex hope you understand)

chelsi Ruffing

I Love You Dad But I'M Sorry

Sometimes I wonder if you even care
I really don't remember you being there
I can't stand it when you lie
I gave up now it's not even worth to cry
Now I don't care if you really love me
I'm getting older there are things I now see
There were so many late nights
You and mom always had so many fights
I'm not the same little girl you use to know Half the stuff you do and say is all a show
I love you dad but I'm sorry I'm through I'm not going to play anymore games with you
You weren't there for my broken heart
Sometimes you were the one to tare it apart
So many times you brought me to tears
If only you knew your little girls fears
How far you really pushed her away
The things to you she's never going to say

(To my dad sorry the truth hurts)

chelsi Ruffing

I' M Standing

I'm standing on glass and its about to break
I'm going to fall away from you take me hand and I'll be safe

(when things were bad the only one there was my big sister kayla this is to her)

chelsi Ruffing

I Never

I never knew it was hard
I never thought that it would come back I never knew I'd give in I never thought you'd say that I never knew i could trust you
I never thought to ask you
I never really gave it any thought I never thought it'd be like that I never knew you'd be true
I never really thought to be shocked

chelsi Ruffing

I Never Want To Lose You

I never want to lose you
Life with out you is nothing
Your that light that shines in my life
Your so much like my sis
I'll always keep you safe
Don't forget that I'm always here
I'm not going any were

(this to my friend lauren and michelle)

chelsi Ruffing

I Once Was In Love

I once was in love with you Now I'm so very through You said all those lies to me
I wish you could just see
I wish I could restart
I hoped not to have a broken heart
I cry so many tears
Just look in the mirrors
I can't believe you lied
You and your damn pride
Not one thing to say not even a sound Here I go round and round

chelsi Ruffing

I Put A Tiny Cut

I put a tiny cut just to see it bleed to watch the blood flow like a stream
I am not even going to scream
I really want to die
I'm not going to lie
I wish it would just end
I don't want to go around the bend look at me what can you see all that's there is a girl in the dark on my body that one little mark crying tears of sorrow there's not going to be a tomorrow not for me
don't you see no hand to lend this is the end

chelsi Ruffing

I Still Have It All

You tried to bring me down
You tried to take what's mine
Made me keep on running even after no breath left Tore my heart out thinking it was a game Blood fell from my body from the cut you placed You let me fall when I needed you most You laughed when the tears started to fall Told all the lies about me to the people around me Tired to put your hands where they didn't belong
The night-mares I had from you were never far Being scared to walk down the street
Being scared to sleep at night!
You tried to break me in two
You tried to drive me insane
Showing me the meaning of real pain
Try to break me Try to hate me
I'm still on top it all Boy you changed my life
You made me see the truth behind your eyes Love me leave me
I still have it all!

chelsi Ruffing

I Use To Have Such A Sweet Heart

You know at one time I loved you Maybe by some small chance you loved me to Yeah I know I did self harm
All up and down my arm
Yes I know it was wrong
Before I was not that strong
I use to have such a sweet heart
But you ripped mine apart
You have no clue on how much I hide
I hold it all inside
Just so you never see
You know I was happyen when it was you and me
My fears I will defeat
What I did I won't repeat
At one time you were mine Yeah in time I will be just fine
I can't ever rest
I'm putting your love to the test
My heart had to mend
You hurt me bad I won't pretend Everyone keeps reassuring me
Of what you did with she I want to hide in my home
Just so I can be alone
I don't want another broken heart
I lost a huge part
When I lost you I cryed to many tears
I have so many unwritten fears Happyyness is like sweet dreams
For you thats what it seems Open your eyes
Didn't you ever see the scary sighns?
I have nothing more to say Wait yes I do and this is Should I say hi or goodbye?

chelsi Ruffing

I Wish I Could Trun Back

I wish I could trun back time
I wish I could still call you mine
I wish there was no more lieing
I wish I didn't feel like dieing
I wish there was some hope for you and me I wish I could just let this all be I wish there was that light
I wish everything could be right
I wish I did't have cuts up my arm
I wish for no more self harm

chelsi Ruffing

I Wish There Was Hope

I wish there was hope its very hard to cope kowning hes not mine
I cant step off this line breaking down inside it feels like t'm on a scary ride life feels less and less my world is a big mess sad tears that i cry wny did all those people lie?

chelsi Ruffing

If Only You Can See

There are things I can never tell I have a life alot like hell
You will never see it
But I have a black spirit
I can't change who I have become My heart has gone cold and numb
I was always a big hand
I think whats happend was pland
Then again thats just me
None of you took the time to see
I love my team
That would be my family
Black is the color of my heart
People have ripped it apart
I have seen more than most
I was like a ghost
If you could see what i have seen
You would know what I mean

chelsi Ruffing

If So Does It Last Forever To

I'm lost again someway somehow Nothing seems to make sense of right now Trying very hard to let go of the past Yet I always seem to end up where I start last Telling my story its hard to speak
Reaching out to hold something from feeling weak Wanting to dissappear into the dark so no one can see
'I'm strong, I can do this its not the end for me! '
Does the fairy tales ever come true?
If so do they last forever to?
Whys is so hard to stay strong
The suspence seems so very long Wanting to cry but won't allow my self won't even try To everyone I keep saying the same lie
I'm so tired of playing their game
I won't stop until I put them all to shame Nothing is working out right
The same play I seem to recite Theres just to much disbelief
When its all over it will be a relief
Maybe then I'll be able to think clear
The truth may never appear
So does the fairy tale ever come true?
If so does it last forever to?
I guess I will just never know Only thing to go by is a TV show

chelsi Ruffing

I'M Done

Getting i dizzy from the spinning Tired of all the running Ready to give it all up now
You say it will be better but how?
I don't want to cry any more
I'm tired of always opening a new door
I will not do another bend
This is all coming to an end
You took it all away
This will be the last day
No more heart breaking people are going to stop taking

chelsi Ruffing

I'M Falling For This Guy

I'm falling for this guy all I can say is oh my I smile when I see him should I go on a limb what ever will I do everyone keeps asking who I will never say his name
I feel so very lame

chelsi Ruffing

I'M Letting It Take Over My Life

I'm letting this take over my life and more
This is it I have to face it I can't walk back through that door
I just wanted to live my life and me a normal kid Yet for some reason there was so much people hid
The lies they had said
So many thoughts that swirl around in my head None of this is even fair
That's it I don't want to care
This is it my hearts going to go black It's already cold there is no bringing it back
I don't want to always hate But I'm starting to think it's just to late

chelsi Ruffing

I'M Not

I'm not so sure any more
I can't stand on my own
I'm falling from heaven
I can't stop doing so wrong
I'm really loseing my mind
I don't think i can be saved
I'm gone from you for good
I'm sorry for what I did
This is the end

chelsi Ruffing

I'M Not Your Girl

I'm not your girl
Nor do I want to be I'm sorry I'm not her
I cant be your little ho
I can have way better
Your way to much a player
Not worth any of my time
Sorry to be so mean
But dued your very rude
Ha you think you kool
Well have you look in the mirrer

chelsi Ruffing

I'M Now Standing At Heavens Gate

As the whispers of the wind catch my hair Sticking my feet in the sand something so fair
As my hair blows softly across my face
I walk in such a gentle pace
Looking around to see all the beautiful things around me Everything is so peaceful to be
I look ahead to see just a pretty light
How can everything be so very bright?
I reach out my hand
Everything for once I understand
As I take each step to this new place Then I come face to face
Here it come up my fait
I'm now standing at heavens gate

chelsi Ruffing

I'M The Night Angel

I'm the night angel
I swore only at night
I don't like the light
I'm the mean one I'll beat your a
I don't like players so that means i don't like you!

chelsi Ruffing

Imaging

Running fast and trying to hide
I can hear his shoes hit the ground behind
To afraid to look back Everything around me is black
I can feel him getting closer to me
I don't understand why he won't let me be
This road is never ending
I feel like I am going to start crying
What's so very wrong?
Why don't I feel so strong?
Someone save me is what calls
Then someone graves me before I fall
I scream please don't hurt me
His face I couldn't see
He picked me up and carried me away
I must have fell asleep till the next day
I sat up in this bed
I thought was already dead
My whole body was sore
I stood up but then hit the floor
He came over with a smile
And said to me you have been sleeping for a while I felt like I knew him from somewhere
I have never seen him around here
I must have been in a dream
For some reason I wanted to scream
I fell back into a deep sleep
I sat up real fast with such a leap
In my room I was alone
All of the sudden I heard a ring is was the phone
My mom said come one my sleepy head
Get up and out of that bed
Looking out the window it was snowing Was that real or was I imaging

chelsi Ruffing

In The Dark For So Long

In the dark for so long
Never to see the light again
Its always the same thing
Never to be seen
Never to be heard
Why what did I do
That was so very wrong
To get such pain inside Never to cry
Never to just die
I hate this more and more
I can't get free
why why why
Never to be free
Never will any one see How much longer wil this be Now the pain feels like stabbing knives End this for me please! please! please!

chelsi Ruffing

In The Hands Of Another

In the hands of another
I want to run for cover
My heart is dieing
From all this hurtful lieing
I don't want to cry any more
This is all going on behind the door
Closeing my eyes
To stop all the lies
Why must this hurt so bad
I want my loveing dad
Oh wait hes not here
And I can't go over there
I wish it would all freez
Just to make you see you once were my lover
Now I need my mother
Like stabbing knives
Messeing up everyones lives
How come this pain came to just me
And never hurt him can't you see
Its so unfair
To be in the hands of another

chelsi Ruffing

In The Past

Behind the hidden door
Now with things I'm so unsure
I never thought I was waisting time on this fight Maybe I just forgot what was right
I depended on my friends to keep me strong
Now I know that was just wrong
Maybe saying good-bye isn't the hardest thing to do To people who weren't really there for you
Not showing anymore tears
Talking back everyone of my fears Putting my hands down to catch my fall
I thought at one time I had to hold on to it all
So many memories from the past Funny how time seems to fly by so fast Being happy always seems to just pass
It's like driving a car with no breaks you know your going to crash
I thought someone would always be there to grave my hand There's always going to be those things I don't understand sooner or later my hearts just going to go cold There are things that you have never been told Most people don't know the meaning of hell
The things that most people won't ever tell
If only you knew about in the past Well the things in my mind that never seem to last

chelsi Ruffing

In The Shadows

I stand here in the shadows of my broken heart
Knowing this was wrong from the start
As I stand here trying to think about it all What made me lose my grip and fall
I just don't get it or understand When did I lose my grip on this land
The truth I'm trying to hide Lives like this big up and down ride
With all the twists and turns
The pain in one's heart still burns Screaming out someone save me!
Just someone open their eyes and see
I'm still standing here in the shadows of my broken heart
I don't have what's left to fall apart
I have these painful thoughts in my head
As if the good part of me is dead
As all slips from my finger tips
The whispers come from my lips
It's like a written story for people to see
As I stay in the dark wishing I was free Held down by his chain
As the whip comes down with such pain
The loud yelling cry Saying all the forgetting lies Leaving marks and blisters
They breaking to sisters!
SOMEONE SAVE WE!
Before it's too late for me and she

chelsi Ruffing

In The Shadows Of Her Broken Heart

As I stand in the shadows of her broken heart Watching as the world about her falls apart
Not able to say a word to save her from her fears
I can't even wipe away her tears
Her love for him, she's scared to say
He seems to push her further away What's there for her to hold on to The real question is who?
She walks alone down this path in the rain Trying so very hard to forget this pain
I'm standing here watching her cry
I can't move even when I try
She turns to just me
She can tell I can see
As I reach out my hand
She takes it trying to understand
She knows she has to stay strong
Even though pain feels so wrong
She tightens her grip and causes a blister I'll always love you my little sister.

chelsi Ruffing

Inlove With You Forever3

Inlove with you forever
Our first kiss I still remember Everytime you said you loved me Everything you made me see You were there when things went wrong
YOu were always there to keep me strong
You whiped away every tear Losing you was my biggest fear Inlove with you forever to be
I wanted everyone around me to see
The first time you touched my hand
Oh did I feel at peace on this land!
The worries became few and few
I opend my heart up to you
It seemed like everything fell into place Everything went at a sweet steady pace
Love was one thing I thought I would never understand Until the day you graved my hand
All the games we use to play
How I would talk to you all night and day
I will love you forever to be But in your eyes the truth I can now see Our fun and laughter was never ment to last
The memories are all in the past
The kissing and gingleing seem to fade away Leaving nothing left to say
You hurt me leaving me with a broken heart Never coming back you stole a huge part Maybe in some way you did really care
You left me there in tears witch was never fair!
Falling inlove with you got my heart broken Wishing I could tell you everything, but its left unsopken Seeing you I still lose my breath
The pain almost feels like death
It's almost like you took a knife and put it through me When I found out what you did with she!
I couldn't take it anymore I walked away
You try to run after me but when you get there you have nothing to say Things can't go back to the way they were its just to late

I'll always love you because you I can't seem to hate I'll remember the first time we said hi
But now I am always going to remember when I said good-bye

chelsi Ruffing

Inlove With Your Perfict Lie

I shouldn't have these's tears
There's so many fears Theres something I don't understand Why did you grave my hand?
Then say the words I love you?
Knowing I would believe you and say it to All the lies that were spoken
In the silents of the lies the truth was awoken
I'm the one who always trys
To tell the truth I'm inlove with your perfict lies This isn't a play or show
The truth I already know Even though it hurts I can't put you last Your a big part of my past
You never heard my cries
But still I'm inlove with your perfict lie
I sit awake in my bed till the light of day Still shocked with nothing to say Why did you let me fall?
When I was with you I had it all Maybe its time to let you fade away
Will you let me go if I may?
Then again I don't want to try Because I'm inlove with your perfict lie

chelsi Ruffing

Is Our Friendship Ment To Last

Is our friendship ment to last
Or shall it just fall apart
Despite what they all say Will it always be you and I
Yes we sometimes fight
But is the friendship worth throughing away You'll always be in my heart
No matter what I hope you at lest know that You'll always be my best friend
No matter what you say or do I'll always be right there (this is to my best friends)

chelsi Ruffing

Its A Pretty Sight To See

its a pretty sight to see when it was justt you and me our love was very strong
i still dont know what went so very wrong
I hide my sadness behind those smiles Its like i'm walking for miles i will never say you took my heart away
its never ending running down that hall
i wait for you to be the one to call loving you was my fear
i didn't want to shed a tear this is all somthing you will never know because i wont let it show
i'm sorry for being real i can't that this is how i feel

chelsi Ruffing

Its A Pretty Sight To See

Its a pretty sight to see
When it was just you and me
Our love was very strong
I still don't know what went so very wrong
I hide my sadness behind this smiles
Its like I am walking for miles
I will never be able to say
You took my heart away
Its never ending running down that hall
I wait for you to be the one to call
loving you was my fear
I didn't want to shed a tear
This is all something you will never know
Because I won't let it show
I'm sorry for being real
I can't help that is how I feel

chelsi Ruffing

It's All Me Now

wanting someone to just stay true the big thing is who I keep on trying and trying Yet i always end up crying tell me god how this is fair why is it that no one seems to care am i just waisting time all the same or is it my life some kind of game?
In this play do i have the worse part someone with way to big a heart I wanted to be saved from me but now i can really see this was never just about me or they there was always so much to say Broken up inside and lost within these walls as each day passes apart of my life falls just letting go and not doing this any more walking to my room and slam the door standing there and screaming doing it on my own not with a team this is all about me from now on

chelsi Ruffing

It's Almost Like A Romeo And Juliet Story To Be

She's still sitting there
With the words still sworing through the air
She wonders will anything ever be right
She cries and cries all night
He is the reason keeping her strong Yet everyone one is making things hard and wrong
She holds tight to his hand
They both just don't understand
He smiles and says baby everything will be ok becaue I love you She smiles ands says I believe and I love you to Even now people can't see

By the time they do it will be to late These two lovers know their own fait

chelsi Ruffing

It's My Worst Fear

I have a nightmare were its just me
There's no light so I can't see
It feels like I'm running down a hall
All of the sudden I start to fall
As i scream to be saved
I hit this ground that feels paved
I stand up shaking
All of the sudden I foget everything
I sit down on the cold ground to cry
But I couldn't so I didnt even try Why did this happen to me?
Was there a reason for this to be?
I stand back up ready to run
I can hear someone laughing with fun
So I start to run to the sounds
It feels as if I'm running up mounds Feels like it never comes near So i start to feel a tear
I look up and its rain
All of the sudden I get hit with this pain!
so I go to open my eyes
It's just me in my room that was all lies
So in my worst fears it's always only me What is it trying to make me see?

chelsi Ruffing

Its Not A Dream Any More

Its not a dream any more you have to be the one to close the door love was once a beautiful thing maybe one day you will wear that ring the words i love you is what you will hear it will cause you to cry a happy tear thats soemthing that will have to wait all because that boy was to late he left you there to wonder why if he loved you and why didnt he say goodbye what did you do so wrong you thought your love was very strong that boy left you there to cry now you wonder if what he said was a lie i guess you'll never know why he had to go you feel like its your fault but when really that boys the one who missed out (to all you gilrs who ahve had your hearts ripped out by a boy)

chelsi Ruffing

Its Such A Scary Feeling

Its such a scary feeling not haveing you in my life the thought of loseing you it makes me want to cry your my world and so much more
I'd be lost with out ma girl

(this is to my best freind who is more like a lil sis michelle)

chelsi Ruffing

Joey You

joey you were always there and no matter what you were always care we live so far apart you have such a big heart I love you more and more you'll always be my little brother

(joey its to you and I miss you bro)

chelsi Ruffing

Just A Pretty Face

She always sits there with a smile
No one has seen her cry for a while
She is always so very strong
There is no person that knows anything is wrong
There is so much this girl has to hide
The things she keeps deep down inside
People see just a pretty face not the pain behind her eyes
They only see her smile and and hear her laugh not any of her cries Things seem to perfect in her dream Standing there silent when she really wants to scream the secrets she wishes she could tell
The world she lives in feels like hell
If only everyone could see her broken heart
Not much is left holding her together so she don't fall apart
Her hand slips as she starts to lose her grip Too late for her to hold on she's about to slip Just a pretty face is all they can see
I wish you people knew this girl is me!

Just Beond Your Grasp

Its like a scary dream
But your never asleep
Whats that stabbing you in the back
You can't see a thing its all black Everything you want
Is just beond your grasp Crying in the night
When will everything be alright
Your holding on for dear life Its a grip that won't last Its very scary to think That thats were you'll be Foever shal you stay
Now comes you choice
Should you die or live
Can you make the right one
Why do things have to be so hard to pick Can't any thing just be right
Your not so strong
So just please hold on for one last time!

chelsi Ruffing

Just For You My Love

I know I will never fall
Having you in my life I feel I have it all
I lose my breath every time you kiss me
When I shut my eyes your all I ever see You make my heart skip beats every time you hold me in your arms
You make me feel safe from all the worlds' harms Loving you more than you can ever know
Not all my feelings I can show Being with you I don't any fears
You wipe away all my tears
I don't want to be with any one else but you I wish you felt that way to
There is so much I want to say But there's not enough time in a day

chelsi Ruffing

Just Standing There

Standing there she wonders if it's worth it at all Putting her head between her legs dizzy and not wanting to fall Everything's getting so dark what happened to the light
Not caring laying back against the wall without a fight Looking out to see who is standing near She can't see a thing the breathing is all she can hear Not scared they give her no reason to be Too bad her vision is blurry and she can't see Waiting for them to get closer then take hold Skin feeling wet and very cold Letting go she doesn't understand Someone slowly grabs her hand Pulling her close whispers in her ear
'You have nothing to fear'
The only sound is the beating of her heart
Not moving she's being smart
Then out of nowhere a sweet kiss Shocking her what did she miss Smiling he lifts her in the air
Now she can tell he's there and does care Taking her somewhere safe from harm
She's been wrapped with his charm
Just standing there looking out at the rain Wondering what happened to all the pain
He made it all just go away Never once had a bad thing to say

chelsi Ruffing

Just The Site

As I walk with my feet in the sand
With the wind blowing through my hair
I can feel the cold tears rolling down my face
The thoughts that still seem to swirl around in my head Yet I still can't help but want to stay strong I know everything isn't right
But I can't help but enjoy a wonderful site
As the sun starts to set with the colors in the sky
I close my eyes just to keep the memory there
I feel free almost like a bird
To spread my wings and fly away

chelsi Ruffing

Kiss Me

Kiss me
I'm not her
I won't lie or cheat
I'm the one you want to be with I'm cute and evil
Your going to love me
Oh wait my bad
I forgot you like to lie and she my best friend sorry to late for that

chelsi Ruffing

Late Night

staying up late having fun with friends being goofs cause its just fun come on all try it its fun your never going to guess what we did late at night how can being goofs not be fun when we all have the erge to run! ! !
please people try it for me i feel like im high cant you tell

chelsi Ruffing

Laying Upon The Open

laying upon the open grave saying my last good byes looking to the dark sky seeing the bright stars shine upon me what beauty shines in thine eye scares me to think thats were I'll be I lost my chance forever stuck here thinking why remmbering the day I died the pain that hit so hard leaving all of you to cry but free I am to swore upon the heavenly stars you look above to see that love don't shine to be crazy to think I'm gone but heavon is not were I'll be I will not go to hell for shure but to the darkness is were I'll be I've been held down by chains now I will say just let it rain my path has been picked makeing my last wish

chelsi Ruffing

Left Emotionalness

All the pain and hate has left me emotionalness
All my hate built up inside can be dangerous
I'm going to show you all the meaning of pain
Don't tempt me I can be so very insane
With the blood all over my hand
I stand there with a smile something you don't understand I'm becoming my own worst fears Yet for some reason there are no tears
As the darkness takes over my heart
You scared but you're the one who made this start What's wrong? Don't like what you created to be
This isn't something you thought you would see Don't use the bullshit words I love you It don't work this time, you're through No more with the same game
Come on I'm no different, I'm still the same
Some secrets are meant to say
You didn't think I would just shut my mouth and walk away?
So many nights before over you I would cry
Until the day I realized your lie Everyone was wrong I'm not just going to be fine
I will get back what was mine
There were so many times you made me feel dead
So many thoughts always in my head
Tell me something did you ever care?
Ha yeah I know this isn't fair
You played the game out well Too bad the only thing you did was leave as story to tell

chelsi Ruffing

Lets Say A Prayer

Lets say a prayer and hope for things to get better Lets say a prayer for the sun to come out for better weather Lets say a prayer for a something special something new Lets say a prayer for everything good and for me and you Lets say a prayer that we make it though another day Lets say a prayer and get out everything we have to say Lets say a prayer for the bad not to last Lets say a prayer for our loved ones to get better fast Lets say a prayer and hope it all comes true Lets say a prayer for everything bad and me and you Lets say a prayer to be brave at heart
Lets say a prayer and ask for nothing to fall apart Lets say a prayer to show we all care
Lets say a prayer and ask for things to become fair Lets say a prayer for things to become right Lets say a prayer and ask for help on this fight Lets say a prayer and stay very strong Lets say a prayer and fix all that's wrong Lets say a prayer and ask why Lets say a prayer so we can say we did try Lets say a prayer and show we can make it through Lets say a prayer and beat this all too

Little Miss

They all think your perfect Little miss go lucky spirit Who you trying to be Hate to break it to you but you'll never be she You tell everyone I cut my arm
You did it to they call that self harm Everything out of your mouth is a lie Please don't even try
You really think your that clever Yeah ok what ever
You think your so strong Girl we all know your wrong
I do have a heart ingraved on my arm
I also have more of a charm
So what if I'm pretty Your such a pittty
Shayne did say I love you Yeah I know he kissed you to Here's something you forgot a tiny part
He never wanted your damn heart
What I have is mine
Yeah your crush thinks I'm fine

(old poem)

You know your not that smart
In fact your more like a tart.

chelsi Ruffing

Look I Know You Can'T Stand Me At All

Offended because I put up a fight?
Mad because I know what's right?
Can't really stand me because I don't lie
Make it harder because I still try

Look I know you can't stand me at all
Sorry but you will never make me fall
You can't beat me I'm just too strong
Your mad because I know what's right and wrong Won't ever take what belongs to me
So just give up now before I turn into something cruel to be Offended because I put up a fight?

Mad because I know what's right?
Can't really stand me because I don't lie
Make it harder because I still try

I take things at a steady pace
That won't stop me from laughing in your face
I am so very content being crazy me
I could care less if no one in this world can see Losing Loved Ones

As people think about there fears
To some it may bring tears
Life and death we don't understand Even if the answer is right there in the palm of our hand Some hold on to it all Others just let go and fall
To some life feels so wrong
Some can pass death because they are so strong Don't forget the good memories in the past Some do forget and put them last
You can have and lose a lover
Somethings don't last somethings last forever Love is something all people share
Even when it don't seem fair Life is nothing but a thrilling ride
So many secerts people hide Losing someone never feels right
Yeah its going to be a very long night
There are things ment to be Lifes going to get better that you will see It's not fair when a loved one dies Everyone around you can hear your cries

chelsi Ruffing

Losing My Last Fight

staying here to wait for you Crying in the rain at night
Never knowing this would hurt
Please someone save me!

laying here dying
With my heart in my hand
Blood all around me
With no breath left

It's like I'm in the air Fading away from the light
I won't hold on not any more
Losing my last fight

Someone save me
Hold on to my hand
Please don't let me go
I just don't know what to do
I'm lost inside my dreams Someone pull me out

chelsi Ruffing

Losing You From My Life

I have tryed for long to hold you close
But its seems like to you I am a ghost
If only you knew the truth about how I really feel You did break my heart when you left me there in the cold
When I am in your arms I feel so safe
Now without you I feel more lost
Even when I had you in my life
YOu still seemed so far away from me
Please tell me the truth just this once Did you really love me?
You claim when we are together some bad happens
But how are we to know for sure if your not willing to try Please god give me a sighn of some sort Let this hurting pain end
I'm loving you so much everyday
But it seems like your just fading from me!
When I said I was losing you from me life
Its because its like you werent there from the start.

Lost Between Love And Pain

Shes sitting there trying to find out whats right
How can this be such a big fight
Lost between love and pain
Her tears seem to fall like rain
If her heart breaks again can she stay strong?
They keep telling her to walk away
But he always has so much to say
She remembers all the lies
She knows he never heard her cries
Yet she seems to hold on tight with all her heart
Even if he was the one to rip it apart
She feel as if the world around her is turning black Shes so scared to look back Losing him is scary but being hurt bad again is her fear
She has tired to be his again for almost a year Learning the truth sent her over the edge
For the longest time she wanted revenge
She don't know what to say yes or no?
Maybe she should just go Being with him might not be her fate
Yet him she still can't hate
It doesn't even seem fair
She knows hes never going to care
Her little sister tells her not to even try Because she was there when all she did was cry
Yet she seems to be so lost in love in pain
If things keep up this way shes going to go insane
The things I never did see Would you believe this girl is me?

chelsi Ruffing

Love Is Something

love is something to be shared but hearts are not meant to be torn you burn within the fire wow hes such a lier
I can't belive you said that to him
I'm going all out on a limb jesse you better thank me for just letting him be he almost died all becasue you lied all these crazy readings look at all those bleedings

chelsi Ruffing

Lovers End

As he place's a kiss upon her lips
She gets shivers down to her finger tips
He holds her close in his arms
As to keep her safe from lifes harms
When she crys he wipes the tears away
He always leaves her breathless with nothing to say Its not her fault he stole her heart
In her life he became apart
Then there is something that she don't understand Why things seem perfect on this land Everything just fell into place
Even though things whent in a steady pace
She loves all the games they play and more Like when he tickles her on the floor
SO many loving nights
So much is going right
Yet sge is scared to lose her lover
At night she crys and holds on to her cover Praying to god she says 'don't let him fade away'
He opens the door to her and runs to her side
They both know together they will get through lifes ride Nothing can go wrong
They both have eacher to stay strong
So many years go by
Out of all the happyness she starts to cry
He looks deep into her eyes and says 'I love you'
She smiles up at him with words of 'I love you to' Hes gets down on his neen and says 'will you marry me? ' Tears fall from her eyes and she says 'I'll marry you to be'
When is becomes close to that day
The words I do they both will say Then here comes the bad end
When hes driving his car around that bend
As he lets out a scream
As the doctor says 'I'm sorry' its alomost like a dream
As she holds tight to her ring
Wishing she could change this scary thing Without him lifes not fair
About him she'll always care

Her heart belongs to him forever
There can't be another not ever

chelsi Ruffing

Loving Him Is Always And Forever3

The passion shared between them is so clear to see It's as if almost their whole life this was ment to be The feeling they had for their first kiss
What he didn't know was he is her wish
The emotions they never thought they would feel It feels so much like a dream but it's real
He inspired her in so many ways and he don't even know Always picking her back up when she feels so low
She gave him something so precious to her so very dear Him ever leaving her is not something she has to fear Memories from their very first date
Maybe everyones right this is in their fate
The love that burns in her eyes seems forever and ever Loving him is Always And Forever<3

chelsi Ruffing

Loving You Hurt More And More

loving you hurt more and more now its like i close that door loving you hurt me more than ever, you broke my heart forever apart of me is gone for good you feel bad now good you should seeing you everyday makes me want to sit and cry i wish it were different but boy i'm not going to lie i fight back what sad tears that brun on the inside i have gotten good at being able to hide there will be a day were it will all show maybe you're going to feel so low then again will i be able to handle you will you be able to handle me to?
there is something i will never get back i must have some real tack i still love you boy but you're never going to be my little toy lets just end as friends nothing more or less maybe one night i will be able to reasts then again i know it never will be we just always you and me.

chelsi Ruffing

Most Of My Life

Most of my life
I was lied to Now when I come back
I am so very through Now I'm done with their lies
When was it ever fair
You know as well as me
That this should never have to be
But instead you let it go
It's all at the end of the show
Not ever for me or you to know
Now I won't say sorry
Why should I
It was never my fault that you like to lie
So go away you're making my brain fry

chelsi Ruffing

Moving Again

I never do get why
Its almost like you lie
I mean come on for real this is the truth in how i feel we all love you but do we have to move to? please let us stay everyone is to scared to say we dont want to go but we dont let it show

chelsi Ruffing

My Eyes

my eyes are crying because you just kept lying my heart is breaking because the mistakes you kept making my soul is bleeding because my signs you weren't reading my head is about to bust because you lost my trust

chelsi Ruffing

My Love For Him

My love for him is is like no other
My love for him can never be with another Without him I could never be I know you know but can you see I love him more and more
I am opening a new door
All my pain has gone away
Here my heart shall stay
No more tears I have to cry
No I can not even lie
I just smile to hear his name
I can't help that hes to blaim Hes made me whole
And that feels great

chelsi Ruffing

My Scary Fears! ! ! ! ! !

what a messed up dream
I woke up with a scream there' s really nothing there I am still alive and here so many damn tears
my scary fears true happiness is something to seek does this make me sound like a freak?
will you be the one to help me?
or will you let me be?
In my dream i ran down that dark hall please please don't let me fall me best friend i once had I guess to them i really i really am that bad? but then agian how could they know that's nothing I would ever show spencer is the only one for real that's how i really feel!

My Sense Of Relief

There is so much going on that I can't make right
So many phones calls about another fight
Its hard sometimes to be so strong
So many come to me with things so wrong
Its getting hard not to cry
To them I help but to me I lie
I'm always happy to their belief
Only because I have my sense of relief
The only way I know how to deal
It going numb and with nothing to feel Sometimes I wonder how I smile
After everything that's been going on for a while I get so dizzy from time to time and can't see Waking from the nightmares that seem to scare me Like being suffocated and unable to breathe Wanting to run but unable to leave
My sense of relief can't wait much more
I want to hide in my room with a lock on the door
For no one to ever see or hear me scream
I hate this I want to wake from this dream Feeling so very frustrated Feeling even more degraded

Just take a break they say It's ok to walk away for a day
But fighting has become my obsession beyond belief
All this the cause of my sense of relief Going numb and very cold
Holding everything tight in my hand
My pain has become a rejection
I block out all of the depression
Kicking the rocks on my broken road going somewhere Unknown to anyone from here Expressionless and emotionless to all Knees shaking trying hard not to fall
I guess in my disbelief
I will never really find my sense of relief

chelsi Ruffing

My Sister

my sister is my world she is always makes me smile no one in this world could take her place soon she will be gone off to collage she will go to leave me here all alone but no matter what our love is always there!

(this is to my older sis kayla)

My Sweet Love My Sweet Dream

My sweet love my sweet dream
So unreal so beautiful I want to scream
My sweet love my sweet dream
You have placed all the pieces back together at the seem Boy you really did steal my heart away

Taking my breath away with nothing to say
I have fallen hard and very fast Wanting this feeling to always last Your ever so sweet touch and kiss Being away, you I really miss

My sweet love my sweet dream
So unreal so beautiful I want to scream
My sweet love my sweet dream
You have placed all the pieces back together at the seem

Gently holding my hand
In your eyes everything I understand Boy I really have fallen in love with you
You truly are a dream come true
I'll never forget that day
When you leaned down kissing me leaving me with nothing to say

My sweet love my sweet dream
So unreal so beautiful I want to scream
My sweet love my sweet dream
You have placed all the pieces back together at the seem

My Tragic Heart

Standing here in the cold
As my life starts to unfold Revealing secrets that have been hidden
To show you all the rides I have ridden Showing you my tragic heart
I'm hoping to get back the missing part Standing here staying strong Hoping to forget about what's wrong
Some people just have it all
But I'm standing here about to fall
There's just no more tears to cry
I can't even try
The biggest part of me is dead
So many thoughts at once in my head Feels like I'm about to bust
I lost everything even my own trust
As I hold out my hands
I'm so lost I don't understand Love is to me is the same as hate People base it on their fate
It took me so long to see That the problem wasn't always me
I know what to do to make things right
I just have to face the fears at night.

chelsi Ruffing

My Two Angels

They mean so much to me
With me they always seem to be
They always seem to care
They bring me back up when life isn't fair Michelle and Ashly you're my angels
With you two I don't feel in tangles
If I lost you two my world would end Then into darkness i would descend
Both of you are my light Without you both things just wouldn't be right
They always seem to know
When I am upset and putting on a show
They pick me up when if fall
With them I stand so tall
I forget about all my fears They wipe away all my tears
They keep me so strong Nothing can ever be so wrong
I love you both more and more
I know your there for me for sure You keep me going each day
I am more thankful than I can say I'm always going to be there for you Just like you would be there for me to My sweet angles at heart
In my life you will always be apart!

(to my lil sister's Ash and michelle you two mean so much to me i will always be there for you no matter how far away i am!)

chelsi Ruffing

My World Is Now New

My world is now new
I know its weird to you
I can't help but tell
That I'm the one who fell Tears are all over the same things
I wish i could just spread my wings
I wish I didnt have to hide from all my scary fears to hide what's real so this pain I didnt feel but in the end
It's always the same around that bend

chelsi Ruffing

New Friends

Im missing her more and more Now i am opeing a new door new friends that i have now wow all i can say is how?
we all have so much fun i just want to get up and run I still miss michelle like always her and i didnt do any thing but yet we are the ones eho pay how is this ever fair i mean cant all of us just share My new friends are cool we all act like a fool we have more fun than you all know there is more than we all show

chelsi Ruffing

No More Pain

I am standing here now wondering why
Why he did all that and made me cry
I tried so hard to be the girl of his dreams
Now I stand here and scream
This wasn't fair to me at all Thanks for letting me fall
This feeling is worse that you will ever know
I hurt way more than I let show
If only you could have seen I was dying inside
I gave it all I had I really tried Thanks for all the pain
Tears of mine once again fell like rain
My heart have been ripped in two
All because of you!
How hateful this has made me Now you are really going to see

chelsi Ruffing

Nothing More To Say

you and i are never going to say that our hearts were taken away
you know as well as me that theres nothing there to save we i did just as much as you everyone knows it to hating one another is so wrong wasnt our love strong?
do you wish you could take it all back? or is a heart soemthing that you lack

chelsi Ruffing

Once Was A Sweet Dream

Once was a sweet dream
Now its so unreal
I smiled once before
Now I can't even close my eyes
Its so very scary
To have this hurtful dream
Why is this all happing to me
Its always the same thing
I always wake up crying
In this dream I hurt my love
Why what does that mean
I can't keep haveing this very scary dream
I can't stop screaming Help me god save me from this fear that keeps me awake and never lets me take a tiny break!

chelsi Ruffing

Once Was A Sweetie

I once was a sweetie now I am the enemy
I once loved now I just hate
I once had a heart
Now its been ripped apart
I once cried
Now I can say I tried
I once said I loved you
Now I'm so confused
I once thought it would be alright
Now I sit in the night
I once thought it was me
Now I just will let that be Once you were there Now your no were Once you said that we were forever
Now we will always be never Once I was in pain
Now that feeling is so laim
Once I belived
Now I just gave up

chelsi Ruffing

Once Were Lovers

We were once lovers
Now just friends
Now we are back again
Its like I don't know Once your here then you go
How come I never know
Is this fair for you and me
Will this ever just be Is it that love that stil burns within Or is it that fear that tares us apart Will we ever know if we are ment to be
If I never give it that chance to see (the person this is to knows who they are)

chelsi Ruffing

One Tiny Voice

All it takes it one tiny voice
To tell you that somethings not right
Why won't you listen to it
I know your very scared
But please dont hide
Its ok to cry
Listen to your heart
Its always right
May not always seem like it
But when worse comes to worse Its all you have to go on

chelsi Ruffing

One To Many Thoughts

Walking down a never ending road Running around the sharp bend Holding on to whats left Wishing sometimes I were a ghost

Please someone save me
Help me wake up from this dream Give me something to believe in Hiding who I really am trying to be forgiving Crying only when I'm alone

Hoping someone will someday save me

Don't let me fall
Hold me close
Take away all my pain

Wanting my loved one back Keeping my heart hidden Fighting for what I believe in Getting back what they took from me!

chelsi Ruffing

Open Your Eyes

I have been through hell
Things I will never tell
I have cried more than you know I have more hurt than i show one day you will see i want all of this to just be i hate these feelings that brun one day you will all learn that life is not always what it seems it can be nice and can be mean i had to learn that i am i and one day you will all see i have been hurt and i have been lied to no this time its not all about you i dont have a good spirit not any more nor do i want it i love you all at one time i let myself fall i am dark child me being nice is very miled i have gonearound the dumb never ending bend es i wanted it all to comr to an end i caused self-harm
i have more cuts than you know on my arm that was i before i met him and her they mafe me smile that i am sure i lost she the day you took her away why couldnt she just stay?
why do i seem so bad?
i fell so very sad
i am not as bad as you make me i wish i could just be free! at times i need my team that means my family

chelsi Ruffing

Our Love Is Very Strong

You always said it could be never
For some reason it will always be forever
How can this be
Our love is so very strong
Nothing feels wrong
It all feels like a sweet dream
I feel like I should scream
Time just freezes when I'm with you
I hope you feel that to Everyone alywas said wait your trun
So I did and I'm through

chelsi Ruffing

Peaceful Night In A Grave Yard

As the fog starts to rise above the graves
The whispers of the wind start to go Everything so still in the dead of night
As the sun sets and darkness falls
There lies a grave all alone
With only a single red rose placed upon it
A rose of red with the meaning of love
This person below is watching from above
The air blows cold
As if it were to snow
As each letter on the grave faded to see Who was the person place here to be?
Buried below under the cold ground
With so many missed ones
Which lie all around
Not a fear to worry about
For they all went to heaven
Where they are safe Sleep for Entirety
Even when the wind blows
That red rose never moves
As if it was mint to stay
Is that a message of goodbye?
Or for the start of something new And only the meanings of love them to?
As angels fly over head
Like an eagle in the sky Watching over you as you lay your self down

chelsi Ruffing

Perfect Goodbye

Here is where I lay my body to rest
I went through the last test
I will no longer have to pray to see the light
My life has never felt so right
All the pain has vanished into air
This feeling I wish I could share
I now can watch over you
And always keep you safe to
I will always be here
Even though I'm not right there Our friendship is forever that's not going to die not never!
But I got a chance to do right
I have to do this can't wait another night
It's sad to say goodbye
But I didn't have a choice but to die

Please Know That I'M Right Here

Please know that I'm right here
I'm not going any were
I love you girl and always will Know this before you hurt
That its not worth it
I've done it trust
Its better not to Then to make it worse
Its better to talk
Then to hide

(this is to my lil sis ash and 2 of my friends)

Please Let It Be A Dream

As her blood runs cold
The truth about her life starts to unfold
Her life was all a lie
She stands there trying not to cry
Trying so hard to scream
Please please let this be a dream!
She's lost and broken
What happened to the words unspoken
She feels so dead inside
So many feelings she had to hide
As the bridge she stands on starts to sway Losing her grip to fade away

chelsi Ruffing

'Please Tell Me Its True'

Please tell me this is all true
Boy I'm falling inlove with you
You seem to peace back together my borken heart
This to me is a bran new start
I'm your girl forever
No other boy can even measure Without you it wouldn't be the same
The way you make me feel is hotter than a flame
There is so much to say
But not enough time in a single day
In your eyes theres so much there to see

chelsi Ruffing

Please Wake Me Up From This Dream

I'm trying to wake up from this dream
In this dream I am happy or at least I seem Please wake up this night
Don't make me wait for the light
I hate this darkened hall
I want to just let go and fall
I can't keep crying
I am tired of always trying
This has got to come to an end
I don't want any more time to mend
Death is driving me crazy
I get more and more lazy
I have a scary fears
I wake up with such tears
Never wanting to get out of bed
My heart never felt so dead
Please save me before its to late
Before all the love I have turns to hate
I shall parish into nothingness
My life feels less and less
Saving me now is just not the answer
Please always remember
I once lived without the tears and sorrow
You said I can again but how?

Poor Little Girl

This poor little girl sits there in tears
She never thought this was something to fear Everyone has no idea what to say She's not having the best day
All she keeps saying is I want her back Now her hearts seems to have a perment crack
She wishes more than anything it's just a bad dream
If only she could just slam things and scream
She has such a broken heart she just wants it to go away
But nothing will make up for that day
She lost something so close and dear
If only I could make her pain disappear
This poor little girl is my little sis Bringing back her cat is something I wish
There is only so much I can do
But Ashly I hope you know I'm here for you I'm sure she's watching over you to make sure your alright
She is always with you even if not in sight

<Ashly this goes out to you I LOVE YOU! >

Rain Falls

As the drops of water hit the ground
Its such a silent sound
As the thunder roars
Its like the beating of drums
As flashes of Lighting hit the all around Lighten up the sky as it goes by As the rain makes puddles for kids o play it falls off leaves of the trees Kids splash and play
Once in a day comes the rain fall
To wash away the very bad day.

Reality Is Not A Sweet Dream

Reality is not a sweet dream
This is something that can make you scream
Are you able to stay strong?
Even when everything is wrong?
Its almost like life puts you to the test
You keep on going, no time to rest
It brings out your worst fears Things that always bring tears
Yeah in a dream you might have it all
But in reality there's nothing holding you so you can fall
You try so hard not to cry
But in your heart your wanting to die
Wishing you could wake up and everything be alright
But no you wake up to another fight!
Reality is a bitch to be I feel bad for people who can't see

chelsi Ruffing

Red As Rose

Red as a rose Pretty like the sky
Peaceful like the night
Crazy as my way
Sparkes like in your eye
What beautie is there to see That such like another

chelsi Ruffing

Riping My Own Heart

I'm ripeing my own heart
So that this can't start
Its easer to say goodbye
Then to just say hi
I know how it will end
I will not go around that bend Theres nothing more
Its all behind the door
With a lock to keep it hidden
This love should be forbidden
Now I know the truth from you
That you and I will always be through I can't change what my faith is God had the choice and this was his I can't change what I didn't do
I wish I never met you Hurting all the time
For some reason your still not slime
How can this be fair to me
When you the one who love she Dareing to say its alright
When your not the one who cryed at night
Our love was neve ment to be or last But my sould was not ment to be trast
I feel as if I'm breaking Please just stop takeing
Let me just be free
Free from you and free from me
You got to stop lieing Your makeing me feel like dieing

chelsi Ruffing

Run Your Mouth Like You Always Do

Run your mouth like you always do
That's not really any thing new You say we are friends
But I know that's a lie Stop acting as if it's all going to fly
You know that's not me
You know that could never be So just give before you get hurt God you really are dirt
Such a waste of my time
Jesse you're worse than slime
Can't find a word for you Oh don't cry cause all I got to say is boo hoo I'm not playing your games
No not any more
I really just want to call you names
But hey I'll be the nice one for once Wow you can't even say a word Worse than a two year old!

chelsi Ruffing

Seeing Whats Really Real

seeing whats really real thats how you will feel never thought he could i knew i would i don't want to cry i'm not going to try close my heart for cover so you cant run it over i'm safe that way theres nothing more i can say oh wait that was a lie there is one more thing and that is why?

chelsi Ruffing

Shall It Ever Be

Shall it ever be
This cant be it for me
I'm not done
How can there be none
This was never fair
No we can't even share
Its hard for me to say
But I can't just sit around or lay
I need to be on my own
It was once shown
That my heart was hole
Now its in two Please someone help me Find were I come from Mom dad I need you
I think I'm dieing
From this pain I have nothing left
I can't say much more but goodbye Mom and dad

chelsi Ruffing

She Sits Alone

she sits alone in the dark she hides her fears behind that smile her love for him is so very strong but he will never know that he ripped her in two every tear she crys was over him she can never love again I know how this feels because this girl was once me

chelsi Ruffing

Shes Dead Laying There

This girl is standing right here
With tears of such sorrow
Wishing she knew what went so very wrong
As the blade cut accross her arm
There isn't any pain
Everything is so very numb
Her heart became apart of hate
She locked it up with thick chains
Then just through the key away
No person can enter her broken life
As drops of blood hit the cold floor Sending shivers up her spine
Knowing this could be the night she dies
How can any one know her pain
When her whole lifes been hidden for so long Now she dieing with her heart felt pain
As a puddle of blood forms around her She dead laying there

chelsi Ruffing

Smileing For Once

Smileing for once
Can't belive its me
Wow what a change
I feel way different now
Why what changed so very much
How can this be me
Is it true I can be happy to I like this more and more Can't belive it happend to me
Now I'm going to scream
Lol no not really thats not me
Hehe see I got you
I can be happy just not scream

(its cute well thats just me)

chelsi Ruffing

So Different And Yet So Alike

You and I are very different yet we are the same How can this really be
I share all your thoughts
And you know all of mine
We could not be any closer
I know all there is to know
When it come to you
And it just the same for you when it comes to me Wow thats so very scary
But just as much it is fun

(michelle this is to you. you get what i mean)

chelsi Ruffing

Some Day You Will Know

someday you will know i love you then again can you say you love me to? how is it that your with she instead of sweet little me? i hate that it's so hard to watch you pass by me i wish that one day it would be we and not you and me we are like to best friends nothing more and in some way i am not real sure i dont know what it is but my heart will always be his crazy as i might say but boy you stole my heart away something i will never get back loving someone else is something that i lack weird for me to say i know but in some way i know you it to i am hoping in my heart that in my life you will be apart i know how i act but i cant help but look back you know i will love you i hope you can love me to

chelsi Ruffing

Something Hidden

I'm lost within my mind
Looking for something I will never find My heart is in half
It gets hard to laugh
Will I be able to hold on I'm not going to lie I am scared of ron Thats just one of my many fears I've cryed so many tears
Everything is ok or at least I make it seem My fears haunt me in my dream
I don't have a safty zone
There are things wrong they just arn't shown something you will never see I won't let what happend be To much pain insdie
My life is like an up and down ride there is a good thing in my life witch is Spencer and my heart is his!

(please say somthing about this poem poeple)

Something So Innocent

Something so innocent took a drastically tragic turn
There was taught a heart breaking lesson had been learned Coming to realize lost unfaithful lies Screaming out in all the pain and cries Defining truth from reality to really see A tragic putting it out there blunt to be Open and broken heart
To piece it back together each by tiny part Tears occasionally seem to fall Stuning. shocking, terrifying them all
Not ever knowing or to understand Trying to learn the truth of life on this land
Let the water pour like rain
Take and break down every last pain
There is a thin fake line and pretend Coming forth the losing end
Love turns to hate
Its apart of your fate baicing lifes drama on one simple fact Thats a lie if only a act
A matter of you will staying strong
Even when all else fails and goes so wrong Thoughts swirl around in ones head
All feeling within becomes dead
Evil and hatred become awoken Stairing off with words unspoken
As the blood runs ice cold
The thoughts and feelings were never told These are the things they left to hide
The things that were always kept inside

chelsi Ruffing

Somethings Arn'T Ment To Be

Somethings arn't ment to be Things like you and me
I wish this wasn't true
I hate thats its not me and you
My hearts so more I'm closeing that door love is not apart of me anymore
That much I am sure Nothing will ever be right
My world has no light
I am falling into the darkness
I feel less and less
The pain at frist was like stabbing knives
There was so many lifes
This is it this is the end
So now I'll say good bye my friend

chelsi Ruffing

Some Things Are So Unreal, Like A Dream

Some things are so unreal, like a dream
Butterflies in my stomach making me want to scream
It's funny how I met you
How fast I started to care about you too!
Like I have known you for so very long Talking to you nothing can go wrong
I hope in my life you stay apart
For some reason you stole my heart Talking to you always makes me smile
I haven't felt this way for such a while Your something sent from above Filling everything around me with love
It's funny how I met you
I'm so very glad I did to Sometimes things are so unreal
There's no words for how you make me feel
You have me wrapped with your charm and so much more I wish you could be the next person to walk through my door

chelsi Ruffing

Sometimes I Feel

Sometimes I feel as if I am falling.
Sometimes I feel as if the world around me never stops spinning Sometimes I feel like giving up and letting everything go Sometimes I feel like a puppet in a show Sometimes I feel like I should just scream Sometimes I feel like life is nothing but a dream Sometimes I feel as if I'm only fake Sometimes I feel like even when I sleep I'm still awake

The dream the seems to hold me ever so tight
Being in the ever so warm sunlight
All the many things I seem to see
Can this be it, can this be the real me?
The darkness seems to fade away
I'm left shocked with nothing to say

Sometimes I feel as if I will never understand Sometimes I feel as someone is holding my hand Sometimes I feel completely crazy
Sometimes I feel ever so lazy Sometimes I feel as if I lost it all Sometimes I feel like they let me fall
Sometimes I feel as if I did so wrong
Sometimes I feel ever so strong

I know now that people really do care
I also know life isn't always fair
There will always be so memories in my heart
Even if some seem to rip it apart
Love doesn't always have to lead to hate
I know that I can make things better its not to late

Sometime I feel like I should just hide Sometimes I feel to afraid to take a step outside Sometimes I feel like just getting up to sing Sometimes I feel like I can do anything
Sometimes I feel as all anyone can do is lie Sometimes I feel ever so shy
Sometimes I feel happy and sad

Sometimes I feel ever so mad

I love playing in the rain
I can be strong but yet In a lot of pain I'm not perfect nor do I want to be I am content just being me

chelsi Ruffing

Something I Have To Say

Memories are mint to last It's about the fun we had in the past Like running down the street in the rain
We seem to share the same pain
Missing you so much each day!
Now its like we are drifting away
It's like your gone
I don't sleep I'm up till dawn
A nightmare that never seems to end
Now I have to pretend Losing the biggest part of my heart
Now it's all in tiny parts Trying hard not to cry
The same thing keeps replaying in my head why?
You're the reason I held my grip
Now I'm about to slip Wishing we could go back
My world now is nothing but black Life to me is nothing but a test
I wish I could lay in my bed and rest
As tears fall and fall
I wish you could hear me call
I keep our memories in a frame Knowing things will never be the same
The light in my heart has burned out Your name is what I want to shout
But you will never hear me
And no one will ever see Needing you here
But you all the way over there
Some people are just so blind
Even when you give that one sign Staying so very strong
But in my heart everything feels so wrong

chelsi Ruffing

Sorry Ending

I cannot help now but to cry!
Why could not any one realize?
This was all coming to an end
I cant pretend

Sorry ending for you and me
No one in this world will ever see That was all in my past Memories I tired to always put last

Why did you give them back to me?
Why did you never let them be?
Life was something before now
You say it is but how?

I have my life all out of whack
People say I am insane for the way I act
How could they even know?
I have bad way of not letting things show

You know as well as me
That this is something that many do not see I miss my little sister increasingly That is something everyone can see plainly

Please do not let me fall again
Being happy is something I protein Will you be the one to save me?
Or be the one who let me go?

chelsi Ruffing

Stop Choking Me!

Is this real or is it a dream
Why can't I scream?
Everythings all black I can't see
Stop choking me!
I'm losing my breath
I'm getting close to to death
I have no voice I can't speak
Feeling ever so weak
Not a single tear will fall
There isn't anyone I can call
I thought I was safe I guess that was a lie Yet for some reason I can't cry
Stop choking me!
Please I beg you to let me be
All I hear is the pounding of my heart
When will this end, how did it start?
Why does everything go so wrong
I can't break free, I'm not that strong

chelsi Ruffing

Sweet Love

As she lays there with a smile on her face
He sits besides her kissing her sweet lips
The shivers that run through her body and more Oh baby he says with that sparkle in his eyes
She kisses him playfully then comes the smile
As she pulls him upon her with a cute little laugh Kissing her he touches her body Feeling her silk smooth skin against his
The hard breathing and pounding of their hearts
The feelings just rise and rise Clinching her arms around him
Looking deeping into her eyes
Seeing the passion burn ever so deep Let this last forever he thinks to him self
This is it she can't take much more Letting him have her soul and all Giving what was once hers to him
As he does the same

chelsi Ruffing

Sweet Thoughts

It burns like the sun
It's as blue as the sky
It's as red as a rose
It's that sparkle in your eyes
It's as soft as the wind
It's as calm as the water
It's that love you bring It's that shiver you can feel It's the memories we share It's that dream I have It's the life we live
It's the truth that's there It's the feeling we bring

chelsi Ruffing

Taken Away

I can't help but to feel like I'm falling Losing a grip that was never there Going to hit the ground harder this time
Not ever knowing why
Its unfair for this to be happening to me
As tears roll down my face
My heart breaks in two
No one can change this
I guess it's the end for me
I'm wishing this could never be But I can't change what's in store
I don't want to say goodbye
Then again do I really have a choice?
I want to scream
Please someone save me!
But my voice is faint
So no one hears my cry
I don't have a choice but to fade from sight Trying to run or hide is not going to help me
So I just lay there and let the darkness take me
As my eyes close for eternity
My breath is now gone
As my heart stops I lay there dead.

chelsi Ruffing

Taken Away By The Thruth

When did I become your enemy?
What happend to out memory?
You seem to judge when its not right Making people cry in the middle of the night you never know a heart can be so precious To some love can be so dangerous Something so sentimental feelings of the heart become so experimental Getting hurt and trying to stay strong
But in a break up you still feel you were wrong Trying to harder than ever to protect Always in the end you're the one with the most effect
At first there is so much passion
But when it ends it feels like your in a dying prison
Starting to have random acts of mindlessness Always in that state of consciousness
It's funny how it all seems to change Drama fallows in a wide range
It's always an accident
Something they claim to be so very innocent
When it comes to the end again you stop your affection
You stop paying so much attention
You lose sight of what you are You lose all hope and become so far Losing your grip and about the hit the floor
All because that person just walked right out the door Something good for you to know
Just because you hurt don't mean you have to put on a show Yeah we all end up with a broken heart
And yeah it does feel like its been ripped apart
You don't have to be a pretender
In the end its going to get better
I know for a fact to say That there's always going to be another day

chelsi Ruffing

Tears That Fall Like Rain

Tears that fall like rain
Its such a hard thing to hide
Why did I have to be the one cry Couldn't it have been him
God why did I have to be the one to be hurt Could you not have made me numb Same as it always is Their the ones who get away
Can it be that girls have hearts
And boys like to ripe them in parts Why can this really be Is it just me

chelsi Ruffing

The Boy Who Caught My Eye

Walking through the door to see him sitting there I smiled when my friend said he's looken over here
Later that night he held my hand
What I was feeling I didn't understand
This is the truth I would lie
This is the boy who caught my eye
I never thought I would see him after that night
I guess for once rhis was something right Smiling thinking about our first date
My sister says he is in my fate
I still remember our first kiss
He made my every wish
I never thought this would happen to me
I'm in love can you see?
Nothing from him I have to hide
To tell you the truth I don't understand this feeling inside
It's almost like a sweet dream
With all these new feelings I want to scream

(This is about my love. I don't know what I would do without him)

chelsi Ruffing

The Boy Who Caught My Eye With His Lies

When I walked through the door and saw you there We became something great, I thought you would always be here
I wish you never would have held my hand Back then I thought I knew but now I understand You the boy who caught my eyes Caught them with your many lies You're nothing like our first date
We are over a second chance is just too late
I still remember our first kiss
With it you tore my every wish
I never thought you would take away my love or heart
I guess I was blind to think you would tear it apart
The hurtful things you said, the way you made me feel After getting hit I wished you weren't real
I never thought you would do that to me
The true you I finally see Everything from you I started to hide
For the fact that you tore me up inside
Everything became my worst dream
So many times I wanted to break down and scream
Because of you I had so many sleepless nights
Replaying all of our many fights
I fell out of love with you Ending it for good I had enough I was through

chelsi Ruffing

The Dangers In My Mind

The fire that burns behind my eyes
The hatred from all the lies
You can feel the coldness on my hand, the warmth you can't find
The dangers in my mind
This isn't something you want to see
I wouldn't piss me off it's really better to just let it be I'm fed up with all this pain
As each day goes by I become insane
At the end of the day, I'm going to have a cold and black heart Because of things that had to start
The pain and hate start to collide
Everything's going to come out from down inside Even when the pain goes away the hate still remains
They would lock me away in chains
If only they knew the dangers in my mind
Wish I could just rewind
It's hard to put this all in a sentence
I really wish I could just sit here in silence
In my dreams we all sing and dance
With my thoughts during the day it's as if I'm in a trance Letting go of all of you to watch you fall There's never going to be a time to have it all Always and forever will be craved on my grave
I'm into deep for anyone to save People say I'm so very wrong Haha I would like to see them all stay strong

chelsi Ruffing

The Easy Way Out

The easy way out
Its just a little cut No more than that to end it all Take the easy way out
It only hurts for a little bit
Then you black out
Oh wait don't do that Its not that easy at all
In fact Its hard to make that Little cut Plus its not right
Just fight and make it easy Try and you'll just see
The easy way out
Is not always right
When it come down to it

chelsi Ruffing

The Perfect Place

We can walk down a path that's so dark and scary
We can be all-alone and not know what to do
Be so lost and so very confused
Wanting to cry and just give up
There is that place where it's all-good There's no dark hall or scary places
There is no hurting or pain
Its almost like your in heaven
But with out the wings or angels
It a place where all is so pretty It's a place you can have in your dreams
It never fads or goes away
It's a place where you feel so safe
It's a place like this Looking over the water seeing the clouds
Nothing can go wrong in this place of mine Something so peaceful looking Just open your eyes can you can see

chelsi Ruffing

The Truth Unwines Its Self

As if I were in a sweet never ending dream
I don't have to wait Nor can I scream
Its all almost unreal
The warmth from love is what I feel
He kisses me so sweet upon the lips
Sending shivers all over down to my finger tips
When you wrap me in your arms
Its almost like nothing can hurt me in life's harm
The in brace of being next to you
Its like its only us two Falling asleep under the stars in the middle of night Nothing in life can more right
When the rain starts to fall
We still lay there in the center of it all Laying there for what seems like forever Promising to never be with another Its so hard to really see That you really want to spend the rest of your life with me As each day passed by
I started thinking why
Then it all hit me at once
There has been something wrong for months
I realize I was believing your lie
Now I am so shocked I can't help but to cry
Was this all just a dream?
Now all I want to do is scream
I can't believe I saw you with she
When all along you were saying you love me
I guess after all the lies the truth is not to far behind Maybe that's something I never wanted to find What's worse about it all is that was my best friend
You kissed her knowing if I knew I would never mend Now I stand here trying to put that memory last Because that's something in my past
Yet for some damn reason you still have my heart
Even though its only a tiny part
I left with the words unspoken Never letting you know you left me broken
The greatest feeling of our first kiss

Now the worse feeling of love to miss
You said how you felt so bad
But from the start you I never had The piercing pain
What happen to the stuff said in the rain?

(something they thought would stay hidden)

chelsi Ruffing

The Weight Of The World

the weight of the world
closeing all around me the hurt and pain wont just go away
crying tears of sorrow falling beneath you grasp allowing my self to drift away way out of sight and out fo mind to the beneath is were I'm going

The Wind Blows Ever So Light

The wind blows ever so light
Holding his hand ever so tight
He wrapps me tight in his arms
He's got me wrapped with all his charms
I look deep into those beautiful eyes
The thought of losing him makes me want to cry
I love it when he says I love you I want you to know baby I love you to
There is so much only you will ever see
I know no matter what You will always be there for me

Their Worlds

This girl is all wrapped up in an emotion she doesn't understand,
She just keeps on walking and doesn't want anyone to take her hand, Frustrated with tears streaming down her cheeks,
Feeling lost it seems she's felt this way for weeks,
Unsure of what's truly wrong,
She's tired and anymore doesn't want to be strong,
Things seem to be falling apart,
There's like nothing left of her broken heart,
The world seems to be spinning, but she's standing in place,
With mixed emotions within her face,
This boy doesn't know how he's to feel anymore,
Like he doesn't belong here standing at her door,
He just really wants this meant to be,
Pouring his heart out he just wants her to see,
He's just so lost and doesn't understand,
Shaking he tries to steady his hand,
Why does being in love have to hurt so bad,
How come he can't have back what he had,
Standing there he's trying to put things together,
What happened to his forever,
She's lost and doesn't want found,
He sits in his room in silent's never making a sound,
Their worlds are falling apart,
Neither one seems to have much of a heart,
Her world feels cold and she's all alone,
He sits thinking to himself he should have known,
They fear to hold anything dear,
Blocking everyone out with a sneer,
She's no longer put together in ease,
He stands still watching the world freeze,
Nothing to them seems real fair,
But maybe one day they will truly care.

chelsi Ruffing

There In A Dream

There in a dream nothing is wrong
In real life we aren't that strong Holding on to what we believe in our hearts
But what happens when it breaks in parts?
We just keep hiding our fears
So we don't show any tears
Everyone needs time to mend
When will all of the pain end?
Will any one ever know?
Can you be the one to let it show Things that replay in the past those are memories we put last

chelsi Ruffing

There's So Much Left To Say

Words I don't think I can say
I still stand here wondering why you walked away
Your never going to know the feelings I hide Like the broken heart I have inside
I try so hard to regain it all
But you keep setting me up to fall
Tell me the truth did you really love me?
Or was the truth too hard for us to see?
Love is not a fact it's a feeling
The true you was revealing
About me will you ever care
I use to think being alone wasn't fair
I remember when we first said hi
It's painful to think about when we said goodbye People say we were a great match in the past Were we ever meant to last?
I thought we were meant to last forever
Or maybe we are meant to be with another
The truth starts to unfold
Leaving me here shivering cold
But not enough time is a day

They Will Always Have Each Others Heart

They walk down this dark path hand in hand
The world around them they will never understand He looks deep into her eyes Thinking back they remember all the cries
The burning of the once bright flame
Things change so fast nothing seems to stay the same Never once did they let each other fall
When they're together they feel as if they have it all Yet there was something they were missing, something they didn't see How things were to end up to be Now after so long they both walked away Letting go with nothing to say Memories will always last Even if their love was in the past
They will always have each other's hearts
Even if they have to find the tiny parts
All the tears someone else had to dry
It's over now no more tears to cry
It's almost written out just like a book
You just have to really look
As the pain seemed to have grown and grown Finally they gave up because they knew the whole thing was through Sooner or later in life their paths will cross
But they won't see anything as a loss
They will stop and smile then she will go her way and he will go his They know now it's just how it is Faith brought them together but didn't make it something to last Fate made it apart of their past
She will whisper the words I love you Without ever knowing he's whispering the words I love you to

Things I Must Say

I guess the truth must come out sooner or later
To my-self I feel like a traitor Letting my-self play your little game Putting me in so much misery and shame
I don't understand how you could be so mean Taking a break I have to redeem
In you, in us I had so much belief Ending it and walking away was such a relief
You were not like you once appeared In you I cowered to, of you I feared Getting slapped made it hard to think So many tears to scared to blink Baby I love was all a lie
I don't get why you were able to cry
Giving you everything even my heart
Like everyone else you tore it apart
You told me you would never do it again just wait and see
But because of you I lost sight of me Making up so many rules and more Never letting out, blocking the door Until I ended it and started all new Having no idea what you put me through At one time I truly did care
Yet you made everything so unfair
The same thing over and over you would recite Everything always ending in another fight
Out of sight but the image always in mind
What you took from me I'll never find
All the things I've ever wanted to say There wouldn't be enough time in a day scars so deep from all the pain
I almost lost in and went insane
I'm gone I just couldn't take anymore
I'll never forget when I walked out the door

This Girl Had Enough

A girl with a broken heart
It was once whole now it's ripped apart
That boy don't know what he did
He had to act like a little kid
She cried all night
She always thought things were right
He is never going to know How far he made her go
She was always so fair
But he never seems to care
This girl had enough
It was time to play it rough
When he came over that day
All she had to say
"I never did a thing so take your stuff and go"
He looked at her with shock and said, "What is this some kind of show"
Now this girl is with someone new And happy as ever to That boy knows what he did wrong Because with out her he's not so strong

chelsi Ruffing

This Is My True Story

This is my true story
About a friend and me
We were always hanging out
Never a worry or a doubt
We would run in the rain
Just to laugh and play
Not a care to get grounded
What we new was we had etcher
For once we thought it all was ok
But that all change the day they took her away
It killed us both not to talk Even now its still not fair
We have our nick names like Lil and big sis
We even snuck out just to see one another
All because you wouldn't let us Now I cry knowing I can't be there and she will never again be right here
We both wear a neckless to show we still have etcher
But no one else seems to understand we need one another
She will always be my little sister!

chelsi Ruffing

Thought I Wasn'T Strong

You know I use to think I wasn't that strong
Now I know I was so very wrong
I really thought you would always be there Now I walk alone everywhere
Because of you I have a cold heart
How could you rip mine apart
Thanks for showing the real you I guess then I can play that game to Maybe loving you was a waist of time
I guess people were right you are slime Maybe I set myself up for that one Seeing to you it was nothing but fun
I'm to much to handle for a good boy
To what I'm use to you're a boy toy Look I'm not trying to be mean or hateful
I can be mean and I can also be playful
But you will never get to see that side
All because from you the real me I had to hide
I hope this opens your eyes Cause before you didn't hear my cries
It's hard to say goodbye
Maybe I was better never saying hi
Yeah you took my breath away
Only because you shocked me that day!

(thanks for showing me the real you!)

Thoughts Within My Head

Trying hard to get out the feeling Unsure how to put something that's never been spoken Oh so many thoughts all at once
Will they ever come out of my mouth and not lost in my head
I can only wonder but never know
As the fire builds up behind my eyes
Not one will ever know the hatred I hold inside
The bitterness against the world around me
The people that seem to pass but never seem to stay
So many sorts of things I hear
No one knows I'm even standing here
They think they know everything there is to know If only they knew they didn't know half of what they should I clench my fists together and bite my tongue
When really I was to lash out and kill this pain Say the things that seem to burn ever so deep in my mind
There's no point to pray to God right now he can't help I'm strong enough to do this on my own
I've been doing it all this time alone
Some people say she has it all They don't know half of what I go through True friends aren't real Family is a treasure is something you should hold on to Leaving a place isn't always bad
To leave something dreadful
I'd like to see them try and break me
I'll get back up and smile in their face!
I'm a rebel for life there's no changing me!

chelsi Ruffing

Time To Just Die

Time to just die
To just go on my own
Its not the same with me any more I'm not going to quite Its just not right
Hard to see me now
Thats cause I changed so much
I am no longer your slave
To be free and do as I please Its no longer you and me
No one to answer to No one to worried about
Its just me me me Love just being who I want to be Not who other people want I free from your misery

chelsi Ruffing

To For Get Or Understand

Walking down the broken hall
Picking up each piece of my broken heart that had to fall Breathing heavy with my heart racing
The perfect family I was chasing
This is my perfect nightmare
With you guys I'm not going to share
I'm sitting here with my broken heart
As all around me falls apart
To forget or to understand
Was this pain all planned?
The bleeding pain
The perfect heart blood stain
Last words to say is I love you Hoping the person loves you to

chelsi Ruffing

To Many Tears

to many tears were cryed over you but instead i can't even hate you you caused me so much pain I'm going to go insain my hearts breaking in half all you can do is laugh sick is what you make me just stop taking and let it be you caused me to do things that weren't right I had to blow out the candle light my soul has trund black the love from you was such a lack I wish in my heart I could just take it back

chelsi Ruffing

To Much Pain To Fight! !

To much here to say
I hate each and every day Nothing is ever fair to me but no one seems to see
to much pain to fight nothing feels right
My heart is not whole who said that was ever a rule?
Why can't I let any of this show
It hurts even though
Please someone save me
don't let me fade to see
I have those feeling to die
I'm sorry I can't just lie
My last words to all Save me save me before I fall!

chelsi Ruffing

To Sleep Forever In Heavon

Sitting by my window
Watching as the rain falls to the ground
Sitting there with nothing to say
Thinking about all the memories
How much time has passed Fades within the drakness
Where the light slowly goes out Sitting by this window with crying eyes
No one will ever see the truth
So much there thats hidden Holding on so very close
As I fade to become a ghost
Drawing a heart on this window
With the blood from my own wrists
The words of a broken heart
'I'm sorry this all fell apart'
As I lay my head down and close my crying eyes
The lights goes out To now sleep forever in heavon.

chelsi Ruffing

Troubles All Around

Sorrow beneath a sheet of ice so black
To tired and scared to just turn back
For once true love dies so fast Lust over love what seems to last Whipping away tears from eyes so red Can't think straight with thoughts in ones head Swollen and sore from pains so deep Sitting all alone starting to weep
Something so very close taken far away Breathless and shocked unsure what to say Heart pounding faster nothing else to hear Troubles all around everything else to fear
A lesson learned a lesson to teach
So many goals so many things to reach
So many people so many sides Feeling nauseas from the Rolla coaster rides

chelsi Ruffing

Truth Be Told

Scared to say whats really there Unsure if its really fair
So let the truth be told
You can let it free and still have a tight hold Now everything is starting to turn out right
There is no more of never ending fight
I'm free for once to be me
Allowed to let everyone finally see Finally able to show a sweeter side Now I can take a step off the ride getting that much closer to my happy ending There's no more being fake or pretending
I get to stand here with nothing to say For once to relax and just watch the day

chelsi Ruffing

Under My Spell

Falling asleep beneth the stars
Under my spell
is were he shall fall dirfting off to some were new were he can be with me and you under my spell
for no one to see will he fall below me? these people are mine to show them truth because they arent great as he could ever be

chelsi Ruffing

Under The Stars In His Arms

Laying there under the stars Wrapped in his arms
Nothing to worry about in that point in time Smiling up at him with a sparkle in his eyes
The night that means so much
As he hold me closer as if never to let me go Leaning down to kiss me ever so sweet
As if taking my breath from me
My hearts starts to beat faster
As you smiles down at me Whispers the words I love you in my ear Sending shivers up my spine Everytime you touch me Rolling on the ground laughing Play fighting in the night
Standing there giggling
As he runs for me
Warping me tight in his arms Smiling up at him
Knowing I am safe from all the harm Just knowing I'm the girl he loves

chelsi Ruffing

Under The Surfaces

Beneath what you all know
There is more than I let show
In the night I do cry
But when you ask I lie
There are reasons I do it
I know longer have my sweet spirit
My nightmares replay
I see things I could never say
I am so very strong
Why does life feel so very wrong
I don't want to try any more I'm tired of being number four
I can't help but to feel this heart break
All people around me do is take This my life its all real
I don't any one will understand how I feel!

chelsi Ruffing

Understanding

There are those things in life we Just don't understand Things don't always worked out like they are planed
Yes we do cry and get a broken heart
But it don't mean we have to restart
We all of have our fears
At one time we have all showed tears
We have all been judged in some way
Even when we had nothing to say
Some people just don't care Making things so unfair
We always seem to try
Even when its all a lie
Some may feel things that others don't know Then can also feel so low
We don't because it's a rule people claim god to be a fool
But that's not true
I am none of the few
I hide away so much more
I stay hidden in behind that door
Crying only in the rain Trying so hard to hide the pain!
Wishing to take it all back My lights gone black nothing feels right
staying up in the night
Holding on to memories so they will last
I can't forget my past
Its was make me this way
I just want to close my eyes and fade away
Life is nothing but a dream Sometimes a nightmare that makes you scream

chelsi Ruffing

Unfit Friendship

They say to her to not be around me
They said to me to never talk to she When they said this nasty stuff to us
It really made us want to cuss
They said our friendship was unfit Here's the thing we never had a problem with it
So what right did they have to say?
She was the reason I made it each day!
But now she's gone because of this All because the last word was his Her and I needed one another How would you even know your not her mother

chelsi Ruffing

Unforgettable Car Ride

Something never to forget that very night,
Driving home laughing, everything alright,
Seeing headlights come at us, smile fading from my face,
They were in a hurry, like beating the red light was a race,
Turning my head to get away from the car,
Head turned but not being able to get far,
In a split second the vehicles collide,
Trying all I wanted to do was hide,
The crunching of the metals was such a horrifying sound, Hitting our vehicle so hard, causing us to spin around,
Smacking the side of my face, after sitting there dazed,
Finally able to get out looking at both vehicles amazed,
My boyfriend was fine, shaken up as he got out of the driver side, Something unexpected an unforgettable ride,
I'll never understand how the girl could drink or do drugs and drive,
The accident was bad, but at least we're all alive,
The passenger in the other car with a broken nose, Everything after felt like it froze,
My mom came down and held me tight,
Where everything took place was such a sight,
People talk about it all the time, but you never know,
Its different when your in it, than watching a show,
I never thought it would happen to me,
Somethings happen to open your eyes to see.

chelsi Ruffing

Unforgiving This Time Around

I'm not scared anymore of you Hitting me was the last thing you will ever do I've walked away knowing things were never going to be alright
I got tired of everything day being another fight
I had to learn its just better being only me
However I wish it didn't take me so long to see
At one time you were my everything and more
But you lost me when I walked out that door
Unforgiving this time around
With you I lost something after everything the truth was found
Was I ever in love I don't really know
But if you did love hitting me wasn't away to show I've blocked every memory and threw out every gift given to me what was this all for? What was it meant to be?
I thought I was strong but you made me feel weak
You made it hard to fight back or speak Letting things for so long I was wrong
Now I can stand here and take anything from being so strong Unforgiving this time around
This time I'm not scared to speak up and make a sound
I finally got up and walked away
I guess there isn't much left to say

chelsi Ruffing

Unspoken And Unheard

I'm losing it all
Nothing left but to fall
Living on the outside but when really I'm dying
I smile but no one sees me crying
How did I end up in hell?
How couldn't any one tell?
As each thing is taken away
I can't believe I make it each day Knowing this is the end for me
Only wish that It wasn't to late to see
I reached out my hand
But there you just stand
This was a never ending fight
Something that only a few see is right
As the blood drips from my heart
As each piece is ripped apart
Its not something any one will ever know Cause its just something I'm not willing to show Everyone thinks I'm all a game
But how can you know when I never act the same People say don't give up and always try
But when will it get better unless I die?
There is no answer here
In fact there's never going to be an answer any where Walking down this path of memories from the past Memories of fun that are now last
I hate to smile and laugh
I just want to come to the end of my path
There nothing like a life that's dying
Even when the person keeps on trying
I hate having to hide
This feeling is up and down like a ride
In death people think happiness is found
But how can happiness be being placed in the ground?
Yeah heaven must be great and all
But can't you wait till its your turn instead of letting that littlest bit of hope fall?
I always want to just scream
Is this real or a dream?
Its like I'm standing on broken glass

Right in front of you I pass Tears start to fall once again from my eyes
Only wishing I knew the truth to all the lies
I stopped I can't breath any more I feel like I'm already dead and about to hit the floor

chelsi Ruffing

Waking Up From A Dream

I'm trying to wake up from this dream
In this dream I am happy or at least I seem
Please wake up this night
Don't make me wait for the light
I hate this darkened hall
I want to just let go and fall
I can't keep crying
I am tired of always trying
This has got to come to an end
I don't want any more time to mend
Death is driving me crazy
I get more and more lazy
I have a scary fears
I wake up with such tears
Never wanting to get out of bed
My heart never felt so dead
Please save me before its to late
Before all the love I have turns to hate
I shall parish into nothingness
My life feels less and less
Saving me now is just not the answer
Please always remember
I once lived without the tears and sorrow
You said I can again but how?

chelsi Ruffing

We All Have Dreams

We all have dreams that we hide
Things that all of us keep inside Memories that feel so unreal
It's going to take time to heal
To many people heard my cry Hate is what you see in my cold eyes
Yeah I do have a heart ingraved on my arm
But remeber you did self harm
I do have a dark spirit
Everyone always knew it Stop trying to pretend
This is all coming to an end
Look back into the past
I was always last Yeah thats something I am sure I don't want you here any more
As good as you make it seem
You can't wake up this is not a dream Come on you didn't think you were clever Thats really a never You love to take and take
I wish I could drowned you in a lake
Do you have an off lever
I think your favorit word is what ever

We Believe With The Smallest Part Of Our Hearts

We believe with the smallest part of our hearts
That thing becomes better with every new start
The truth unrattles its-self for all to see The lies become a game of fun to be It's been hard for all to hide
What an unforgetting scary ride
It's almost like a dream
Please try not to scream
How is it that I can't cry
I'm not sure I even want to try Love is not in my fate
All of it turns to hate Words that were spoken
It's just another heart broken

chelsi Ruffing

We Make Choices

We make choices to live by Choices to keep us going even when we cry
A rule never said but that's always there
In a world cold, black and very unfair
We make choices to keep us safe from the harm Like being warned to back away like an alarm Something more like words never spoken
Take away the net what's keeping us from being broken
We make choices hoping for them to keep us strong
But taking any steps back everything is still all wrong Standing still breathing slow just isn't working out right Fists up heart racing your always ready to fight
We make choices because it's what we've been told Knuckles turning white from having such a tight hold We've grown up use to it but doesn't make it true
The real choices are always up to you!

chelsi Ruffing

We'll Make It Through

Things seem hard right now but we will make it through Baby no matter what I will wait for you
I won't ever go anywhere
I'm always going to be right here

Love is never easy but its worth it all
I will always be right here when you feel like your going to fall I'll hold you up like you've done for me
No one will ever truly know or see Because of you I am so very strong With you nothing can be so wrong
You have whipped away my tears
Chased away all of my fears

Things seem hard right now but we will make it through
Baby no matter what I will wait for you
I won't ever go anywhere
I'm always going to be right here

There is so much I don't understand or know
But I know I will make it from the love that you show Baby you're my everything and more
I will count down the days until you walk back through that door
To wrap my arms tight around you Tell you how much I love you to Never again to let you go away
Even if just for one day

Things seem hard right now but we will make it through
Baby no matter what I will wait for you
I won't ever go anywhere
I'm always going to be right here

chelsi Ruffing

We'Re Broken And Alone

People you see everyday
They don't have much to say
Their life to them is one big ride Broken up all inside
Holding back so many tears
Their life is biased around their fears Stuck in a world with heart ache and pain
The only time you see them cry is in the rain
Their broken and alone falling apart with their broken hearts Wanting out of their life that's falling apart Should they keep living their lie?
Or should they end it all and die?
The choice is up to you Will you be the one to let them fall to?
You see them as a token
But none of you see they are broken
The truth is what they want you to see
But they really want you to let them be
All of the sudden you seem to care
Now that there hearts are being to tare
The world to them they wish would just end
So they don't have to pretend Sometimes it's just to late
I guess its all a matter of believing in your fait
You will never know why
They are giving up and won't try
This is something only they know
All because this is their show
They smile to put on an act
Being happy all the time is a fact
You think you know them so well
But yet you couldn't tell
They are alone in this world so black
The one thing they won't do is look back
If you knew half of what is hidden
The thoughts they get should be forbidden

(this was my way of telling people the truth my little sister ashly helped me with this peom)

What Do You Do

what do you do what do you say when someone says
I love you

chelsi Ruffing

What Made Him Do This, I'll Never Know Why

As the wind blows, the air around blows colder Standing there I can feel his breath on my shoulder
Out of nowhere his hands around my neck with a grip
With pain so tight, reality starts to slip
My heart pounding, breath caught inside Scared and worried trying to hide
I can't fight back, its too dark to even see Just don't understand why its happening to me

He came out of nowhere with a face not to care Grabbing my neck from behind, he made this all unfair Praying to myself for someone to save me Never asking for this nightmare to come true or be Things have just gone all wrong
Finally trying to break free from a grip so strong My vision just doesn't seem so clear
His face is so twisted with sneer

Stumbling back I'm free and far away
Rubbing my neck, with no words to say
He stands with a smile upon his face Between my nightmare and reality there's not much space
With fierce swings our blows collide
No longer do I feel weak inside Taking back every heart break back and lie
What made him do this, I'll never know why

chelsi Ruffing

What My Hearts Telling Me To Do.

They say go with what my heart tells you to do My hearts saying I'm in love with you Taking a chance and going with what my heart is telling me Lets see if all of this is truly ment to be Let see after so long if we're mnet to last
This time lets take things slow and not move so fast

They say go with what your hearts telling you to do My hearts telling me to put everything on the line for you
I never thought I'd get a second chance with this Boy you truly are my every wish
So many things I feel I want you to know Smiling and giggleing are hard not to show
Some how you just stole my heart
In my life no matter what promise you'll always be apart

People are telling to follow what my heart is saying to me How much I love and care about you you'll never see Being far apart isn't fair
I get through the day knowing that you really do care Boy your my wish come true
Boy forever I want to be with you
So much to say but not enough time in a day How about starting something new, what do you say?

chelsi Ruffing

Whats Real And Whats Not

How will I ever know
Whats real and whats not
Will I ever know that you loved me
Or ever cared at all
Was it me or was it you Will it ever be just us
Or will I just drift away
Is it love or is it hate Can be in between
Whats real and whats not
Thats one thing I'll never know
And its hurt so
Why must it be so hard
I know now its was never you and me
It was you and she

chelsi Ruffing

Whats Up And What Went Down

I'm on the go once again to hide
Can you see me go on this ride?
I make it to the very top and have it all Then all of the sudden I lost it all and fall
I get so close and yet so far
Its like I'm running away in that car
I went from loving and thankful To mean and hateful Poeples seem to always ask why
But not a one of them know I cry
See I always have to pretend
I know were it began but I dont know where it will end
Tell me something god will there always be this pain?
Will I be able to stand here and scream in the rain?
Was my life just a bad dream
Or is this real and I can't just scream
Dear god if this is just my living nightmare Wake me up so my heart won't tare

chelsi Ruffing

When You Left

You took apart of me with you
That part I can never get back
I lost all hope
I'm going to fall
Now you can take that all back
Have you not cause enough pain for me
Why must you be you Stop takeing my loved ones Its just not fair

chelsi Ruffing

Why Does Pain Hurt So Bad

Why does pain have to hurt so bad
It gets so unbearable
It never is fair
Nor is it right
It makes us cry in the middle of the night
Always seems to give scary thoughts Makeing people want to die
Everyone always asks why You will spend your whole life wondering why
I wish I could say other wise
But for nowI just can't Please know in time
It will be alright

chelsi Ruffing

Why Must Love Be

Why must love be so very hard
How come it makes us cry
What makes it so very good Why do we waist our time how come you can't say why What made it so very hard I never want to love again

chelsi Ruffing

Why Was It Me

why was it me
What did I ever do
How could you do that to me
You left without a goodbye Didn't you love me at all Why was it me dad
Why did you hurt me so all I ever wanted was for you to care
I guess thats a wish that will never come true

(I wrote this when my dad stoped comeing around)

chelsi Ruffing

Why Why Why

In the dark is were I'll be I can't stand being me here I go around the bend
I want this to just end
I dont want these's thoughts any more
This is what goes on behind the door
I cry all night long Everything is so very wrong
I think about dieing
Why why why
whats so very wrong with me
I hate this feeling deep inside me
Its so unfair
why doesn't any one care
I'm hurting inside
And you could care less
Why why why
whats so very wrong with me

chelsi Ruffing

'Will She Wait Forever? '

She sits there alone wondering why Hoping she don't break down and cry
The love she has for him is ever so strong Being without him feels so wrong
Nothing in life is ever so fair
All she wants is for him to care
As the story keeps on playing
As people keep on saying She keeps on asking her self 'Does he love me? ' will she be able to wait forever to see?

chelsi Ruffing

Words Left Unspoken Between Lovers

So many things were left unspoken
Her heart is now broken
Her life is so much like a scary dream
She wakes up with a scream
Will this pain last forever?
She wanted him not another
He just up and walk away Leaving her there stund with nothing to say
As she stands there with her broke heart
He ripped it out and tore is apart
She tryes so hard not to cry
Why did she believe his lie?
She thought he was her lover
Now she cries and holds tight to her cover
She looks into the mirrer and asks why didn't he love me?
I guess I am not as good as she I wish we didn't have to say goodbye Wish he would at least try

Writing In The Candle Light

She sits there writing in the candle light
As tears fall from her eyes nothing seems right
The letters hard to read from all the tears
Everything she writes are all about her fears
What happend to the time when she laughed and didn't cry?
What happend to the time when she didn't give up but try?
Things around her feel wrong
It gets harder for her to stay strong
As she places the deep cut in her arm
There is no pain in her self harm
Her heart becomes so numb
She whips away the tears this is so dumb
She writing a letter when no one will care Life is never going to be fair
All her love turns to hate
There won't be any going back thats just to late Taking the letter in her hand
In front of the fire place she goes to stand Setting the letter in the flame Theres not going to be anymore shame
Taking the knife in her hand to rip the pain apart Taking the knife and cutting out her heart.
The blood flows down to the floor
For her its just a closed door

Writer's Block

A story that was once written out so clear Everything so close and dear Slowly things start to fade from their place
Then disappearing in a steady pace
The writing starts to fade as the pages go black
The writer has to stop and can't go back Leaving no ending no place to go There aren't even any pictures to show
No emotion or thought to hear or see Soon to have nothing left to be No way to understand or be wrong no rules saying to be strong Starting in the same place with the same thought There's just something there which has you caught
As the time passes on the clock
The writer seems to have written block
Sitting there with nothing to say
Time just keeps on going with each passing day

You Asked Me Why

You asked me why
I'm not even going to try
You think its all about you
I can play that game to You had to make up lies
I'm not going to cry
You did it once more
I'm not so sure
You can't have my heart
Not even one part

chelsi Ruffing

You Didn'T Care Before

Bleeding away all my pain
You couldn't save me now
I am way to far gone
You weren't there for so long
Now that you want to care
It's just to late for sorry
You didn't care before
why start now and waist my time?
I always cryed over you
Now its your trun to cry over me
I don't haev to be the one with a broken heart
Now its your trun to feel what I did for so long
I want to say goodbye and be nice
But then i just don't how you really feel right now!

You Fight And Fight

You fight and fight
Likes its alright
She sits there and watches close Sometimes she wish she were a ghost Can't you see that it hurts her
To hear you screaming
Look what you made her do
She put that tiny cut just to show you Take it from me its not ok
When your kid has to say
Mom and dad please stop
Its not fair for us to have to hear
If your not happy then go away Leave us all here to just be!

chelsi Ruffing

You Have To Let Me Grow Up

Mom I love you
Yes I know you love me to But mom I'm a big girl now
You have to understand how I'm going to be just fine
Mom I'm not nine
Yes its hard for you to grasp that I am older But mom always remember i learnd all from you maybe somethings form dad to

You Never Gave Us A Chance

It was all here at one time Everything was greatest as it can get My heart was whole back then
Now the biggest part is gone!
My life will never be the same
He took that away from me!
No one can save me not now
My life is too far gone
As I become something all fear
I lost all hope when you took her away!

chelsi Ruffing

You Never Took The Time

You never took the time
To see what was really wrong
I hurt myself to see it bleed
You never even cried
I made myself believe
That one day it would all change
But how could it
When you didn't want to try
I wanted that love from you
So very very bad
The thing i don't understand
Is why did you get so mad
All I ever asked was for you to just listen
But no instead you just told me to leave
So here now you got your wish
I'm gone from you for good
I made your only wish
I hope you feel real bad
I hope it makes you sad
I died last night
And now I'm gone from your life
You got what you wanted
Now your not so glad

You Think When Really

You think this girl has it all
When really shes about to fall
You think they like her more When really you never see what goes on behind that door
You think shes perfect to see When really shes far from perfect to be
You think shes so strong
When really she thinks everything around her is wrong
You think shes all about being better
When really shes sitting there write her last letter
You think this isn't fair
When really this girl really does care
You think this girl always walks with her head held high When really this girl just wants to break down and cry
You think everything about this girl is right When really this girl is trying not to give up on this fight

chelsi Ruffing

You Told Me It Was

You told me it was all ok
But when really we were drifting away Going around the sharp bend
Just to hit the scary end
The pain that hits you and cause's a tear Thats got to be such a fear
Realzing it's all about to end
I just need time to mend

chelsi Ruffing

Your Not So Good

Your not so good
Wow you act like god
When your such a clown
Your such a fake
Its makeing me sick
No one likes you
So please stop waisting our time
You caused so much pain
And you can't be saying its alright Tell the truth your a liar
You took familys loved ones away
How and the hell was that right
I will not claim you as my president!
