Zoom - World

ZOOM - WORLD

O my good world
Where are you, how are you
How can I see you, which color are you
O World, show me your where about

Give me time to see you
Where can I come and meet you
Show me the place you stay
I will come and speak to you

I am your friend, my dear world
I am here to meet you
You are silent with us
I am not a spectator in your world

I can't close my eyes in this world
I fulfill my dreams in your world
I will wait for you to speak
I am not a stranger to you

Where can I come and see you
I can see hillocks, rivers, and water falls
May I see deserts, forests, sea or sky?
O World, show me your identity

O World, tell me the truth
I know your game
I will follow you
I will abide by you

O My good world
Where are you, how are you

Listen - Listen

LISTEN - LISTEN

Listen, listen, it's a fact, listen

People flourish at one point of time
It's because their past concrete deeds
People criticize with egoism
Mercilessly air negative comments

You earn money for family happiness
Happiness is far away from you
Don't complicate yourself in litigation
Whole world watches if you grow

You try to have peace of mind
No where it is available, one can say
One can buy the peace of mind
No go after money and money

Pubs and bars are relaxing places
Tentative enjoyment may satisfy you
There is no place that you can be happy
Peace of mind, one can get with kith and kin

Act like a listener
But, don't try to boast
Listen and laugh as a sincere guy
Speak and speak on subject of the day

Smile and smile though don't like
Speak and speak though you don't precipitate
Mingle and mingle though you're in a hurry
Roll the day with your presence on the day

Listen, listen, it's a fact, listen
Don't be after money and money

Don't - Worry

DON'T - WORRY

Brother O Brother
Sister O Sister
Know your place
Know your world

World consists of crooks and cracks
World can't bear people with crooks and cracks
World can give lenience to few
One can't become burden to the world

Mistakes in life is experience
But, mistakes lead monetary loss
You are polished, if you are nil
Fame will be yours in the last

Your age may become barrier soon
You're nowhere in your turn
A day will come to become nervous
No matter man, life is all, about it

Don't worry, the God is great
You will be blessed by the Lord
Lord may listen to your feelings
A day is not far, you will be remembered

Day is yours, you achieve goals
Hard work will lead to Stairs
Up and up, you'll climb the steps
Reach the Top and show the world, the success

Your achievement is yours
Great people work to reach the goal
Don't blame others for nasty things
Work and work in a hasty way

Golden Time Never be Lost

Once the Time is lost, never gain again
Think and work in a Timely manner
Time bound program, fetch you a lot

Lazy man will never be Crazy
Crazy things are Smarty Ways
Ingenious minds are Crazy to work
Work and live in a Crazy

Sister O Sister

Speech - Ambassador

SPEECH - AMBASSADOR

My speech is an Ambassador
It touches billions of hearts
The power of tongue is priceless
Speech varies from heart to heart

My philanthropies are God's wish
I wish to follow the Lord's direction
My help to humane is service to God
O God, give me power to serve the people

My heart speaks to the Lord
My pert-chart is God's wish
My liking to serve the Nature is the Lord's order
The God is Great, as I am at his feet

I am the servant of God, to obey His order
Wherever I am, I will obey His order
The God direct me, I will follow
O God, save the Universe and humanity

The God's wish is one's wish
Can't go against soul wish
Soul, an Ambassador of the God
The Nature obey to the God's order

Things one does good, one hope so
One does activities from God's blessing
If you're good, the God's intent is good
Man's search on Earth as God's wish from Heaven

Speech has tongue power vibrations
It is powerful as electro-magnetic strength
One can't bear, the power of speech, at times
Heart and Soul, bless the tongue power speech

O Lord, my thinking be given in right way
My speech be flown for good path

My actions be directed for Natures cause
My life be shown for human cause

O God, tell me my place in this Universe
My actions are nothing but His direction
My deeds in this Universe are His orders
I pray for a place in the Stars list

Smartlife

SMARTLIFE

The entire life is foolish
When we are not planned
The entire life shines
When we are planned

Whole world bow down
If I am a professional
The entire world scolds
If I am uneducated

If you are not smart
You are smashed
If you are intelligent
You are crowned

I can imagine, life with no knowledge
I am honored if I am educated
I can't live without a profession
My days are numbered, if I am nil

I am to monitor my own self
No one will monitor for somebody's sake
Who will monitor for whose sake
It's self to monitor for self own sake

Great people worked for somebody's sake
Leave alone family for country's sake
Became poor for Nations sake
Sacrificed life for people's sake

Days have rolled and people have changed
Knowledge gained for selfish sake
Deceit and deceiving became common things
Who will question for whose sake

People have become don't care masters
Respect and honor are far away things

Discipline and principles are out of dictionary
People become aghast when things go wrong

I can't be a lazy man always
I feel like to work for self and Nation
My like is to learn and learn fast
I like to live through my profession soon

World is vast, as one can see
Earn like a bull, if one has guts
Don't be idle with a devil's mind
Life will glow with your efforts of growth

Don't blame others, if you're a failure
Try helping others, if you're in success
Day's will be rolled like wheels on track
Smart Life will end when you reach the station

Thinking varies from Earth to Sky
Earnings go from Sea to Stars
People fly like an Angels fly
Drown in the sea when the wings are cut

Money matters all things in the world
Rich man becomes richer in the world
Poor man becomes poorer in the world
Rich people always are safest in the world

The entire life is foolish
Whole world bow down
If you are not smart
I can imagine, life with no knowledge

I am to monitor my own self
Great people worked for somebody's sake
Days have rolled and people have changed
People have become don't care masters
I can't be a lazy man always
World is vast, as one can see
Earn like a bull, if one has guts
Don't blame others, if you're a failure
Thinking varies from Earth to Sky

Money matters all things in the world

Life is not foolish

Life is not Smart

Baby-O-Baby

BABY-O-BABY

Baby O Baby, My dear Baby
I know, love has no boundaries
I too know, love has no distance
Love travels faster than soul

My lovely baby, love has no death
I know, the love is priceless
I know too, love has no religion
Love has no education, well

O Baby, love is infinite
You know, love has no hunger
Love can dictate terms
Love travels entire Universe

Love definition, I can't express
I can't explain, how the love will be
Love has no day and night
Pure love has no pollution

Love starts at sixteen
Begin love like acts and behavior
What the love is, youngsters experience
Can't explain love, how it will be

Love is deep and hard to guess
How deep the love is, one can't judge
Can't measure depth of love's sacredness
Who knows, where the love stays

Love is hidden
Love has no face
Love has no color
Love is spread in the entire Universe

Love travels in train and rain
Love travels in space and sea

Love has no gears and brakes
Love fly like satellite ship

Rulers lost the Kingdoms
Kingdoms became deserts
Love like strike is more like a missile
Love fights Nature, as Nature keeps silent

Love behave like a Lightening Thunder
Calls the Deal like Nature's win
Erupts Life like Clouds rupture sound
Sparks Life with thundering speed

Rain and Cloud create the havoc play
Love and life is like a Sound of Music
Game of Life is Love like Dance
Love and Life are Nature's Gift

People die for love sake life
Love can't die for Nature's sake
Baby O Baby, show the Love
Baby O Baby, feel the Love

Actoflord

ACTOFLORD

My birth is by the grace of God
It's God's wish that I am here
Genders are equal in the Lord's eye
We are the living beings in this world

The Lord is great
He is always with us
It's God's given life
Let us work for humanity

Learning things are different
Impart the knowledge that we learnt
The Nature rules the conditions
Living beings to follow the Nature

Life is not forever
Let us sacrifice for human cause
What may come in the way?
This is the Act of God

One to live in an optimism way
Never to bother for past days rolled
Think the present as big hit days
Future will roll like a broad gauge way

People grow in a small style route
One to follow the present day path
One can't go against the world wide wind
Day is sure that comes to your rescue

Work and work, all day work
Stick to the guns, till your ends meet
Reach the goal like a legends way
Sure to reach first, the photos finish post

You run and run like a galloping horse
You'll win with a streets margin

The cup is yours with family cheers
Reach the winning pole to touch the screen

Bride's Agony

Bride's Agony

With self-advocacy able to settle-down
Able to manage crucial moment & time
Time is rolling.
Lot of thoughts emanated in Brides mind.

I knew it well
Things do not favor me
It was a life and death question
I hoped for good

I was always praying the Almighty
To clinch the marriage issue
I like no untoward incidents
I was little bit apprehensive

Doubted my ensuing in-laws
I was observing their psychology
Time was rolling out
I was in full control with deep thoughts

I was looking at my wrist watch
Observing the Time & date
I was disappointed for few days
I thought for a while

To swim in the Life Sea
To reach the Life Shore

I like to swim in the Sea
To reach the Sea Shore

I thought, never to give up
Hopes always live with hopes
I had a detailed discussion
I had exciting talk

I was relieved from tension

I asked uncle
Sought for marriage alliance with Uncle's son
I want to settle in life

Run the family with peace of mind
Hubby has better principles in life
I recouped with heavy breath
Prepared for countdown days

I made gate dash for clinching my issue
Observed bridegroom's father carefully
He walked to the door
I knew, time was running out

Suppressed the urge to check my watch
I took a deep breath
Started counting in reverse under my breath
Like, ten, nine, eight, seven, six to zero

Though perturbed, kept my mind balanced
Came to the sense
Requested for a glass of water
Settled down for few seconds to ease tension

My heavy breath has calmed down
Had sigh of relief
My inner sense told me to observe the wrist watch
Watching the psychology of boy's parents

The inner 'sacred soul' told me to speak very softly and politely
Prepared for any eventuality in this crucial issue
Consoling my heavy inner heart
Trying to cool down my brain

I was able to pacify myself
Able to remember my friends telling me that,
After the storm, there is always calm
After the sunshine there are showers of rain

With this self-advocacy and self-consoling
Able to settle-down after some time
Able to manage crucial moment & time

Urged Aunty and Uncle to perform this marriage soon

Would be mother-in-law understood well
The agony of Bride was well received
Would be bride has been given good treatment
Well spoke by would be in-laws.

Would be in-laws agreed in toto
The bride was given an assurance by in-laws
The engagement would be accepted
The Marriage would be performed soon.

With this kind words of in-laws
The bride was happy
Bridegroom was also happy
Engagement and Marriage took place.

Both the new couples Happy
Both the In-laws Happy
Oh the marriage day, invitees blessings showered
New couples were very happy.

Went on Honeymoon like twitter-shelter
'Young couples Twitter Shelter Home
Looks like Great Princes - Bonding with Loving Heart
Universal Beauty-Smartly in the World
Bonding Hands Forever, Life partners soon

Later, Fly Away like Twitter, for Honeymoon Joy
Settle in Life for a Big Show Soon"

As Sun rises in the East my Soul comes back
As the Day begins, my Soul reaches the Heart
Heart and Soul works like a tie-up twins
This tie-up twins is for 100 years lease

I know Neighbors with jealous mind
I know my presumptions are not correct
I can't be a fraudulent husband
I can't be in a deceiver's life

I don't want alcohol effect on family
I can't think in gamblers mind
I don't want to be a fraudster
I know, Yes man gets Midas touch

I know well that gossip won't pay
I know well the dangers of truth
I don't like the Boss with Third Eye
No conflicts with my crack boss

Can dive from the Sky to reach the Earth
Can't fly from the Earth to reach the Sky

Time

TIME

Trust, Faith and Belief are the Life's Partner
I know the Life moves with Truth and Lie
The Team work will make Technology change
Beautiful Life will have the Technology utility

True Relationships Never Die on Valentine's Day
I Say No to Vanish and Disappear
I need Trust, Faith and Belief as Ultimate Target
No matter, I give support and help

The Fate depends on Time
Time Rules the Life
Life to mould as per Time
Time will lead the Life in this World

People get affected if the Time is bad
Millionaires become Paupers one day
Paupers become Wealthy and Rich
Rich become millionaires, as Time will Say

I and you can't go against the Time
Time wind breaks all expectations
Calculations go wrong, if Time is bad
Time will decide the Life's Destiny fast

I Pray the Time, I Pray the God
I look for Time for an auspicious event
I follow Time for an auspicious work
I follow Time for ceremonial functions

It's Time, Time and Time
Time Rules Everything
Time changes People fast
Time Rules Life in this World

Belovedguardian

BELOVEDGUARDIAN

O My lovely power of Attorney
You're the guardian of family
Your honor is my honor
I know very little, you know everything

You're my beloved lady
All privileges are with you
Still there is vacuum in freedom
You speak and speak, as you like

Deeply think when I am in train
You're caution; I come back to this world
I know, my heart beats are not halted
I confess my love that I am with you

Few faults make you nervous
No matter, you be cool
When you attack, the world become silent
Yet, the world will praise you, my lovely

You should know, who listen to you
World is vast, you should manage
Plan and work, keep things moving
Don't halt in the middle, if you are in loss

Scars are seen in the life train
Wounds are healed in day-to-day life
Damages are seen to recovery methods
Close on the heels, life will move like a goods train

Who comes to rescue for whose sake
Where is the time for one to involve
Who cares whom, in this busy life?
Why to bother for others, bother for yourself

Challenge and Challenge

O What a life, what a growth
Every second is a life challenge
How I live, the God only tell
Awesome life and fantastic life

Something special, I want to do
I can't grow, without a risk
No matter I die, I want success
I like to think, I like to act

I want to be special in this world
I will look the fields of risk
I will try and implement my plans
Recognition I need, the world will give

I will study, the basics of ethics
I should know, the basics of knowledge
I will work, the basics of project
I can't sleep, without a success

Life is life, I can't self explain
Life is with unknown challenge
Life is lazy when the mind is idle
Life is sharp when you're sharp

Dangers are seen in the challenging life
Troubles are seen in the routine life
Hurdles are seen in the professional life
Risks are seen in the risky profession

Life is not the money and enjoyment
Life is not the family and children
Life is not the ethics and business
Life is the service to the mankind and the society

I challenge, you challenge
Live and life for a challenging life

Risk the life for cause of a country
Work for a cause, live for a country

Life is a life, on a cyclic basis
Work for others for a cause of life
Show the game for a life show game
Work and work for everybody's sake

Span of life is limited in life
Shoulder the burden in the span of life
Remove the worries for the cause of family
Will become great when you achieve success

O God, please don't curse
I can't lead miserable life
I wanted her, got her and lost her
O God, I don't propose, you don't dispose

Genders think things won't happen
One thinks one, things happen other
No matter, the God may be laughing
The God is a Nature politician

I know the God honor me one day
I will be happy with no litigation then
He will make me aware, I knew well
He gives me all, I know, I will be happy

I will be diplomatic and flexible
I lose something, but I will gain later
I know expectations are different
The reality I know and understand, O God

O God, don't play diplomacy on me
I don't want to be diplomatic with my family
I can't afford to lead my life diplomatically

I like to live my life in a simple way

, O God, no diplomacy and no politics
I like my life to be a simple one
Don't give me troubles and hardships
I feel like good with all my connections

It's Dignity of Labor that Develop Skills
Don't get Trouble and have Dissatisfaction

Abide Directions of Nature and Diplomatic Speak
Keep aside Dirty Politics for Dreaming Life
Never encourage Drunkards and Dump Addiction
Feel an Ego A Disqualification

Encourage Energy of Love, as my Eyes Never Sleep
Give extra Mileage to Energy of Love
Don't like money, though experience the Loss
Like Dignity, Decency and Royalty

Face Value can lead from Failures to Success
Favor to follow Friendship Value
Feel Sad for Finding Faults for Flourishing Point
Follow Mentors to come out from Frustration

Guidance from mentors, is the best to follow
With no advice minds can't brush-up
Peoples support is always good
If people are good, society is good

It is not correct to stay away from the society
Society is nothing but it's our own face
Little what we help makes things great
Name and fame will last forever

Support extended is support received
Help extended is help received
Reciprocal support and help is always offering

Marriage Alliance

(Copy Right Protected Song Lyrics)

(Love Shy Song)

I am in love with a girl
To my conscious, the girl not loved me
I am worried to speak to her
She never cares me

I thought, I want to speak to her
She never gives a chance to speak
I am wasting time and money
Still, it's a long shot to meet and speak

I am sensitive in mind
I am afraid to speak in public
I feel I am nervous
It looks guilty to speak to her

I thought all the ways and means
I followed a strategy not to speak to her
I kept silent for few months
Slowly I was forgetting her

Her details are in Matrimony list
I too registered in the same Matrimony list
Her elders contacted me
I gave a green signal for an alliance

A day came closer to marriage alliance
It was a day I went to her home
She was called to speak to me
She never spoke to me, as I expected

I thought she rejected me
I was hoping for a success alliance
No reply came from her side
I doubted about this marriage alliance

A couple of weeks passed
Message came from her
She was ready for an alliance with me
I accepted for this good proposal
