MS. NIVEDITA

18 February 2010

May life...poetry

Bring colorful euphony

To encolor you...

Thro' your poetry

I want to be soused in

Rainbowy Vibgyor

And feel the rapture thro'

The indulgence

Sitting by your side

In endless flowery grove

Flood gate...of minstrel

The key you please open...

Bon jour me with Holi... :) ... :)

Standing you're
On the opposite bank
Of my song,
Ambulant my tunes become Me, don't get you.

Breeze is blowing
Oh, oh excellently
Keep anchored the boat
No more.
Cross and come, O Dear
Into the abode of my bosom.

Game of songs with you
Game of distance is,
Me in agony play flute
All the time,
When, O Dear yourself will come
Take my flute to play,
In the dense darkness of Rapture-full silent night.

ndu Kar (3/19/2010 3: 48: 00 PM) to one of the stunning rejoinder as i would like to express my displeasure by the unsavory, disgruntled yet heinous demeanor as when one faces at times while trudging on the path of day today life irrespective of any place, people, cast, creed or gender consideration, yes of course that was there in stone age in most wild way in deep forest and we gradually evolved to a most refined homo sapiens because by the greater virtue of education, knowledge, wisdom, yet braced up by more rationality as on today by twenty first century, but shockingly we still we find certain wild traits still inherent in certain species of mankind which is when most rueful yet stark appalling fact, but by advent genetic science and the modern bio-technological tools it has been quite pregnant with possibility to clone a living organism or to alter undesired characteristics in man or any living organism even any kind of disease/ insanity in human population according to desired characteristics scientist are in a way of progress to clone man of superb qualities for greater benevolence of society to make our posterity stable and disease free to a most unbelievable extent by completion of Human genome project and of course complete human gene mapping, it has been quite possible to locate the undesired gene or defunct leading to dysfunction of cell physiology that causes constant aberration in health system, so any aberrated man can be re pared at the same time by applying the different modern techniques biotechnology say for example of Recombinant DNA Technology, scientist are in position to cure any kind abnormal disease, or psychology in human health system by gene therapy, even by taking the help DNA-chips replacement for appropriate gene requirement in a biological system to find the solution to our age old human psychosis in the niche of human health, administration crime and peace in the society , yet time is not far off, where it would be possible to prepare our heavenly humankind by cutting edges of human genetics by solve the very mystery of any kind of cancer in social system of population by insanity, and i do condemn this misdemeanor by personal mudslinging among ourselves in any form in this global village, thanks for sharing

To be honest no poetry can be canopied under one canvas and there will be pits where other flavors fill up.

When

I was in slumber

Was called upon

Afore timely nothing for.

Entire universe was Still speechless

In the beams of stars

Dense darkness

Earth was shrouded with.

Family lamented

How in dark

Will recognize the path?

I voiced: Will walk with own light

Look the candle is here in my hand.

More the candle emitting

Light in full glow

Equally more and more

Obstacles fuddled.

The blended umbra

Spreads chiaroscuro

Partial vision blurs me.

Quicker I walk fearlessly

By the cloud dust

More and more

The sky gets embraced.

The flame quivers

By fidget wind

My gaits get confounded
In every step.

Suddenly
The head collided
With the mesh of woods
Candle went off suddenly
Have lost the path already
I discover.

In front
Dense darkness
Yell with stooped head
I've lost all powers.

In the very moment
Suddenly find
Pal of my entire life
Mon Escorte
Behind already!

Sama-Veda is better known for the precise meter of its poetry.... There are also painstaking instructions in Sama-Veda about how particular hymns must be sung; this is perhaps because great emphasis was put upon sounds of the words of the mantras and the effect they could have on the environment and the person who pronounced them.

~ Paeon ~

Pre Text: ~ Goddess Durga symbolizes the power of the Supreme Being that maintains moral order and justice in the universe. Durga stands for the unified symbol of all divine forces: ~ Strength, Morality, Protector &c.

In India women are given highest honor as embodiment of motherhood. Many Indian women instead of surname like to use Devi. Devi literally stands for goddess. [For info on Goddess Sri Sri Durga please Google]

Humble submission: ~ This poem is not word by word translation of hymns [Slokas] on Goddess Durga. I sincerely admit my incapability. Here I've blended with poetic elements. I've given transliteration of Sanskrit Slokas [hymns] in the beginning for interested readers. Hope you'll find glimpse of Indian view to Motherhood. ~ niv

Listen love euphony
Snuggles n' gyrates.

Dame Jane is not
Will-o'-the-wisp
But red nip
Sip n' sozzled n' sip.

No go not Close n' abut
Knit love knot.

Sky seeking sleep
O' John race heart's beep
Just a buss in silence
Eurekaize my elegance.

Your adrenalite agitated inn
Soothe in my emotive endorphin.

Come in hey John
Jane waiting in bedecks
Marvel aqua mansion
Sousedouse dipdowse
Bask dotting physiquedawn.

Dame Jane is morning roses
For twilightage John
E'er nears n' closes.

~ Thunder Harp ~

Deep from bosom
Speaks deep
Speak awhile
Why stay far?

Goes my being
Amidst distant clouds
Into deep oblivion
Where runs Knows who?

Thunder Harp
Spills melody
From svelte afar
Listen awhile.

Me mellowed
Burbly effusion
In empyrean heart
Beguile why but?

Do you know?

~ Why Hack My She ~

Why hack my mind?
I can be bare and nude.

Why do hush-hush eye scallop?
My chaste boobs
I can strip off veil for revel
Egressing 'no-bra-look'.

Why scope scoop tangently lips?
Lend red from beguiling xx blood
To satiate you lip hunger.

Why itch psychically in Nibble nimble thighs and triangle in between?
Dive dip deep in horripilant
River Ganga Yamuna
I can lay bedecking billow bed.

Stop hacking
Stop itching
Stop scooping
Stop scoping.

Hey come Bare nude
Together for sure
Flush all impure
Into unmarred pure
Make us' your n' your.

Why then hack my She?
